Two Local Veteran Organization Board Directors Greet Medal of Honor Winner

Attending the Enterprise Bank's Celebration of Excellence held at the Lowell Memorial Auditorium on Wednesday evening, November 12, 2014 were Chris Boshar, Lawrence, MA native and Dick George of the 101st Airborne Division Special Events MA, a nominee for the Community Service Award. Both men are on the Board of Directors for New England Veterans Liberty House (NEVLH.org). New England Veteran Liberty House is an organization of veterans serving veterans by providing a safety net of life, health and safety services without cost or wait. "We stand behind the ones that stood up for us".

The key note speaker at the event was Sal Giunta, the first living recipient of the Medal of Honor for service in Iraq or Afghanistan, presented to Sal by President Obama in 2010. His inspirational speech was very much appreciated by the 2,000 attendees of the event.
