Estate Planning: Special Considerations for Clients with Parkinson's Disease – For many of our clients with Parkinson's Disease, having an estate plan is not enough. We will discuss the difference between a typical estate plan and one drafted specifically for clients with Parkinson's Disease and Dementia. We will also briefly discuss the rules for Medicaid and VA benefits and how clients can plan for these benefits.

Michael J Rose, is an Elder law Attorney based in Lake Oswego. His practice is focused on assisting clients through the retirement years with thoughtful estate plans and crisis management. He earned his Juris Doctor degree from Willamette University College of Law and his undergraduate degree from Brigham Young University. Michael comes from a long line of Oregonians who helped to settle the Mid-Willamette valley. He is a husband and father of three.

Parkinson's Resources of Oregon provides support and resources for people living with Parkinson's disease, their families, and caregivers living here in Oregon and SW Washington and there has never been a better time to connect with us! We invite and encourage each of you engage. Engage with us by signing up for our print and email newsletters and following us on social media. Engage with your community by joining a support group, participating in an exercise class or attending a fundraiser.
