

Family Tree

Please note that under the "Relationship" tab, you have many relatives designation to choose from, However, you may or may not need all of them. Please check the succession law on the bases which your Will has been created and select relatives accordingly for completing the family tree. You need to create Family Tree for every testator. For example in case of Family Will, you will need to create one family tree for Husband and another for Wife. This is not mandatory to fill out but your estate plan will be strong and make it easy for an executor.
