Experience the world at handlebar level with the cycling holiday experts. Ever since our adventure partner's first cycle tour in India in 1978, they recognised that this was the perfect means to explore remote villages a world away from the highways. If you haven't cycled since your school days don't worry. All cycling trips have support crew and backup vehicle so you can cycle at your own pace, while there are no yellow jersey awards at the end of the day. The cycling is through undulating country on sealed and unsealed roads with distances ranging between 20 and 100km a day at a steady pace.
