

The Rocky Mountain Human Service (RMHS) Client Assistance Program is a mill levy-funded resource for Denver residents with intellectual or developmental disabilities. Residents and their families can request services and supports that meet their individual needs. All requests must meet certain requirements, such as ensuring other resources do not exist.

Examples* of covered services and supports include:

Adaptive equipment	Durable medical equipment	Home modifications
Dental and medical costs	Evaluations and assessments	Transportation
Vehicle modifications	Recreation and exercise	Caregiver/parent training
Car seats	Personal electronics	Home repair
Safety items	Cribs/beds

Examples* of services and supports that are not covered include:

Rent and mortgage assistance	Temporary shelter	Moving expenses
Utility bills	Travel	Vehicle repairs
Legal fees	Purchase of a vehicle	Furniture
Service or support available through another resource

*The lists above do not include everything that may or may not be covered under the Client Assistance Program.

Making a Request

- If you have an RMHS service coordinator, contact him/her to submit your request.
- If you do not have an RMHS service coordinator, complete the online Funding Assistance Request form.
- Once a request is submitted you will be notified and will receive information regarding when a decision will be made.
- Once the request is approved or denied, you will be notified by email or phone. If your request is denied, you will receive written notification that includes information on who to contact to further discuss the denial.

If you have a request or questions, please contact your service coordinator or Kris Kogan, Mill Levy Director, at 303-636-5958 or MillLevy@rmhumanservices.org.
