

Agency/Project Name	Description	Ages	Contact Information
Client Education/ Increasing Independence
Ability Connection Colorado: RAMP Extension Program	Offers career-based mentoring, job resources and connections, and job skills training through RAMP, a youth only program associated with the nationally recognized Ready to Achieve Mentoring Program and high school High Tech Program in Colorado.	14 to 24	Tracie Hammons: thammons@abilityconnectioncolorado.org, http://www.abilityconnectioncolorado.org/programs/employment/ready-achieve-mentoring-program/
Pizzability	Provides jobs for adults with developmental disabilities brewing craft beer, bartending, as culinary pizza chefs and line cooks, as a part of the social media and marketing team, as hosts/hostesses/servers, and completing back of house work (busing, inventory, ordering, stocking, cleaning).	21 & up	Tiffany Fixter: Brewabilitylab@gmail.com, www.brewabilitylab.com
Celebrate EDU: Self-Employment Education Project	Individuals learn how to create a business at one-day Kindling Workshops or explore their own business idea using The Spark Program self-employment curriculum.	15 & up	Linda Anderson: Linda@CelebrateEDU.org, https://celebrateedu.org/rmhs/
Colorado Cross Disability Coalition (CCDC): Probate Power	Probate Power focuses primarily on special needs planning for individuals and families with disabilities, but also assists with all other aspects of estate planning and probate administration. Services include, but are not limited to, preparing simple and complex wills, revocable living trusts, special needs trusts, financial power of attorney documents, uncontested guardianships/conservatorships, ABLE accounts, and advanced medical directives.	18 and up	Christopher Brock: cdbrock@ccdconline.org, http://www.ccdconline.org/probate-power
Financial Health Institute: ResourceAbility Program	Providing educational courses to individuals and their support systems on how to manage finances and resources, gain awareness of how financial stress affects well-being, reduce financially-related stress and improve health.	18 & up	Michael Kilgore: mkilgore@fhinst.com, http://www.financialhealthinstitute.com/resourceability/

Agency/Project Name	Description	Ages	Contact Information
Goodwill & Jewish Family Service: Supported Employment Collaborative	Project navigates individuals with developmental disabilities through pre-vocational training, individualized and person-centered job placement and community employment job coaching support by providing services not currently available to them with their current service plans.	18 & up	Kristi Esbenshade: kesbenshade@goodwilldenver.org, https://www.supportedemploymentcollaborative.com/
Guided by Humanity Yoga	Provides inclusive and accessible yoga classes within the community, on-site day program classes, private classes, and a Nutritional Healthy Living Workshop.	18 & up	Mary Sims: mary@guidedbyhumanity.org, www.guidedbyhumanity.org
REVEL: Mentor Program	REVEL provides mentors who are energetic, positive role models who help provide guidance and a fun time. Mentors are the heart of our community by inspiring the group to try new adventures and build meaningful relationships.	14 & up	Stephanie: stephanie@revelinlife.org, http://www.revelinlife.org/
T.A.C.T.	Providing educational opportunities for credit to increase abilities and independence. Includes woodworking program, automotive repair, computer repair, summer camps, and a workshop training series.	7 - 21	http://buildwithtact.org/index.php/our-offerings
Homelessness Initiative
Colorado Fund for People with Disabilities (CFPD): Homelessness Initiative	Providing advocacy, case management, and system navigation for those who have intellectual and developmental disabilities and are experiencing homelessness, or at risk of homelessness, in order to connect them to permanent housing, appropriate disability specific services, and community.	18 & up	Arnie Swenson: arnie@missionsupports.org, http://www.missionsupports.org/
Integrated Health
Laradon: Expansion of Behavioral Services	Provision of behavioral services and supports beyond waiver defined services	18+	Currently available to existing Laradon customers. Other behavioral providers should contact milllevy@rmhumanservices.org for more information.

Agency/Project Name	Description	Ages	Contact Information
Tennyson Center for Children: ASPEN Program	An Adaptive Skills for People with Emotional Needs (ASPEN) classroom which provides a wide range of differentiated educational and supportive services to promote student academic achievement and social skill development.	5 to 18	Djuana Osby: Djuana.osby@tennysoncenter.org , http://www.tennysoncenter.org/programs/
Social/Recreational
Activity Options: Project World	Facilitates access to diverse community and social activities as well as overnight travel. Past activities have included attending local sporting events and concerts.	18 & up	Peggy Berry: signup@activityoptions.com , 303-358-2592, http://www.activityoptions.com/projectworld/
Connect Us: Social Inclusion Project	Offering age-based play groups, inclusive recess facilitation, parent support, and summer camp.	3 to 13	Stephanie Schiff: stephanie@connectusnow.org , https://www.connectusnow.org/
Jewish Family Service: Arts and Community Exploration (ACE)	Offers vibrant and creative art projects, group and individual music therapy, cultural and holiday explorations, and recreation. Empowers individuals to choose volunteering and participating at local art galleries/studios, museums, nature walks, recreation centers, and citywide adventures.	18 & up	Heather Dawson: hdawson@jewishfamilyservice.org , https://www.jewishfamilyservice.org/services/shalom-denver_ace
StellarCare Vacations	Increased access to personalized and/or group travel opportunities, including out of state travel.	18 & up	Stacey Hightchew: shightchew@stellarcare.org , http://www.stellarcaretrips.com/
The Wayfaring Band	All-inclusive, multi-day trip packages that focus on getting participants off the beaten path. In addition to road trips and far-flung adventure travel, TWB offers leadership development programming, community education workshops, and advocacy.	18 & up	Kendall Hagar: info@thewayfaringband.com , http://thewayfaringband.com/services/

Agency/Project Name	Description	Ages	Contact Information
Training & Support
Autism Society of Colorado: Autism 101 Community Series & Police Training	Autism Society of Colorado (ASC) offers Autism 101 presentations and trainings to increase autism awareness and improve the quality of interactions with the Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) communities. ASC provides site-specific training in how to better identify, respond to, communicate, and interact with people with ASD.	18 to 65	Julie Wisman: Development@autismcolorado.org , http://www.autismcolorado.org/
Laradon: EI Play Group/Parent Support	Laradon's Family, Infant and Toddler (FIT) Program offering weekly play and learn groups to improve infants' and toddlers' social emotional development and provide a supportive social network for parents.	0-3	Call/Text/E-mail to register or ask questions: 407.739.5623, Ann-Marie.Logsdon@laradon.org , http://www.laradon.org/education-programs/
Parent to Parent of Colorado: Mile High Connections Matter! Connecting Parents to Information & Emotional Support	Parents of sons and daughters with disabilities receive information and emotional support through a unique program that connects them to a trained Support Parent through Parent to Parent of Colorado		Lisa Franklin: lfranklinp2p@abilityconnectioncolorado.org , http://www.abilityconnectioncolorado.org/p2p-co/become-a-member/
THRIVE Center: Project Independence	Offers training, advising, and resources for parents of children with intellectual/developmental disabilities and students with disabilities to support their ability to advocate their needs, become knowledgeable on how to access educational support and services that meet their unique needs, and become aware of community resources.	14 to 21	Katie Roth, http://www.thrivectr.org/new-events-1/ , http://www.thrivectr.org/