DIRECTOR'S NOTES

It is with the utmost pleasure that I welcome you to our production of Miss Saigon (student version). When we first introduced the possibility of producing Miss Saigon it was met with excitement, adversity, and questions. These are all considered healthy feelings and opinions. After a discussion with the ensemble it was decided to produce what has turned out to be an incredible journey. This story is filled with the message of love, desperation, sacrifice and love lost. Yes, it is a tragic story, but wow does it teach us a lesson. How to appreciate our lives and what we have, realizing that there are so many that do not have what we are lucky enough to have. How so many sacrificed their lives and families for others. Yes, so many protested the Vietnam war and that was the privilege of freedom of speech. However, there were so many Americans that sacrificed themselves, and their freedom. This story teaches us to be humble and appreciative.

A challenge in producing/directing a production such as this is to help the cast get to the point that they truly understand the emotions behind the characters they are playing. This cast has gone behind any expectation I might have had of them, and that was high anyway! The accuracy in which they portray their characters and their mature approach to the subject matter is what has made this rehearsal process and our production so exciting.

There are so many people to thank for the success of this production and I thank you all in advance for your undying support. I would however like to thank a few people who without them at my side this would not have been able to happen. Thank you to Kristen Schuremann my assistant who has given countless hours right by my side helping with anything I asked and always doing it with a smile. To Robyn Fitzgerald, Marie Armstrong, Camille Chistoni and Christine Doscher for their help with organizing so so many costumes. To Duane my talented and very creative set designer who always calms me down with his positive, sweet outlook on everything and my special daughter in-law Jennifer Reid who after work has worked endless hours in my garage building, painting, tying rope, cutting bamboo etc etc to deliver this beautiful set. To my husband Roger who not only puts together a fabulous live orchestra for me but practices countless hours and pays attention to every detail to make the show as best as it can be. Of course, there are so many others who I give a HUGE SHOUT OUT TO and a HUGE THANK YOU!!!!

With all of that said enjoy the show!!! Thank you all for supporting the future of the performing arts.

Fondly! Sabrina

Jack Armstrong

(Chris/Ensemble) is very proud to be a part of this production. Jack has performed in many Newtown High School Productions, Musicals at Richter, and Sabrina's Encore Productions and was a member of the Chamber Choir as well as the NHS singers group. He going to Muhlenberg college in the fall and will be majoring in theater. He is very glad he gets to continue living his dream of being on stage. Jack would like to thank Sabrina, Lisa, Brett, the production staff, cast, crew, and all the people who have shaped him into the actor he is today.

Aidan Moulder

(Chris/Ensemble) Having the opportunity to portray Chris in Miss Saigon is a great honor for Aidan who is also excited to be a part of the ensemble because every aspect of this show is powerful and a theatrical challenge. Most recently Aidan portrayed Jean Valjean in Newtown High School's production of Les Miserables. He has performed with SEP for many years in roles such as Kyle in Legally Blonde, the Captain in Anything Goes, Trevor Graydon in Thoroughly Modern Millie and a variety of characters in Smokey Joe's Café. Aidan is grateful to Brett Boles, Sabrina Post, Lisa Minelli and all the cast, crew, pit and parents who have helped make this show possible. He is sad that this will be his last time on stage with some of his closest friends who are heading off to college in the fall, but happy for all they will accomplish. Enjoy the show!

Kayla Verga

This is an experience she will never forget!

Elizabeth LaRosa

This will be her fifth summer production with Sabrina's Encore Production, some of her favorite past credits include Anything Goes and Legally Blonde. Elizabeth is grateful to Sabrina and Lisa for always believing in her. She would like to thank Kristen, the crew, and the pit, without them the show would not be possible. A big shout out to the cast, breag a leg!

Quinn Fitzgerald

(The Engineer) recently graduated from Newtown High School and The Educational Center for the Arts in New Haven. Quinn studied acting at ECA for the past four years along side his sending school education. He is excited to attend Mason Gross School of the Arts - Rutgers University for their acting conservatory BFA program in the fall. He would like to endlessly thank his mother for all her patience and support through everything so far and everything to come. He would also like to thank Sabrina for inspiring him to act all those years ago.

Phoebe Doscher

(Ellen) is beyond ecstatic to be a part of her last ever show with Sabrina's Encore Productions! An incoming freshman at Gettysburg College, Phoebe has been a part of the SFP family since she was seven years old and owes all her successes in musical theatre to this incredible company. Some of her past credits include Les Misérables (Madame Thenardier) and Getting Away with Murder (Dossie Lusting) with NHS Drama, as well as Legally Blonde (Serena) and Anything Goes (Erma) with SFP. Phoebe would like to give a huge thank you to the talented cast and crew who put countless hours into this production.
