

ADAM AND EVE'S SIN

"From Sin to Skin" Activity

Activity

Adam and Eve were perfect when God created them. When Adam and Eve sinned, something strange happened. They realized they were naked and wanted to cover themselves. In this activity the children will understand that there are consequences when we disobey God. They will also learn that only God can cover us from the effects of our sins.

Procedure

- Print the From Sin to Skin template.
- Cut out Adam and Eve and the leaf and animal skin covering.
- Retell the story explaining that Adam and Eve was naked and unashamed when they were created. Once they sinned they realized they were naked and covered themselves with leaves. God used animal skins to cover Adam and Eve.
- Using double sided tape stick on the fig leaves to the bodies when you reach that part of the story.
- Using double sided tape stick on the animal skins when you reach that part of the story.

If you like you can have three separate dolls for both Adam and Eve. A separate doll for each part of the story.

Explanation: Remind the children that there are consequences when we don't listen.
