

National Trainer

Manny Patrick

As a National Trainer for Habitude Warrior International, Manny speaks to groups all around the nation. Author, and sought out podcast host, Manny Patrick, was an entrepreneur and owner of three restaurants by the age of twenty-six. Success was short-lived, however, due to his lifestyle. Addictions held him closely in their grip for over a decade. In November of 2015, at 29 years of age, Manny embraced a transformation that would change his life, forever.

He traded his vices for a desire to become a better human being, a man that could tap into his true, limitless potential. Now sober, Manny, a self-actualized man is called on to inspire others after overcoming the struggles of life. His book “Loss Vegas,” has received wonderful praise, and his podcast, “A Desire to Inspire with Manny Patrick,” has featured wildly successful individuals including America’s #1 Habits Coach Erik ‘Mr. Awesome’ Swanson, MLB Network analyst Eric Byrnes, 28 time best-selling author Greg Scott Reid, T.V. Personality and Sales Coach Victor Antonio, among many others.

Manny shares many stages with the greatest Speakers of the world! Get ready to be inspired by one of the best trainers of success in the U.S.!
