Bio

As the founder of Breadth of Hope, Lizette Epps, offers speaking, writing, and consulting services geared towards engaging the community and improving lives. She wants to live in a world where men, women, and children are coming together to make positive impacts in their communities.

As a sought after speaker and career navigation consultant with a keen focus on women and children she has been working to help others build their path to success and personal fulfillment. Lizette was recently honored by the Tri-County YWCA as the recipient of the prestigious Coretta Scott King award, featured in Berks Women2Women Magazine, and was recognized by the Reading Eagle as one of the top 40 under 40 in the Berks County Region.

You can find her blazing a trail through Berks County uplifting women and children. She is currently working on her first book, which will be hitting the shelves in 2019.
