

5. You get high cholesterol only from what you eat.

False

Many things affect your cholesterol level including your genes. That said, you still have a lot of control, especially with your food choices. Limit items with too much cholesterol or saturated fats and avoid trans fats completely. To do that, cut back on fatty meats, full-fat dairy products, and deep-fried and processed foods.

< BACK TO BLOG