Dear Members,

Assalamoalaikum wa Rahmatullahe wa Barakatohu

Eid Mubarak. May Allah continue the blessings of this Ramazan and accept our prayers. May we continue to strive to seek His love and mercy.

I would like to share with you a few words from Eid ul Fitr Khutba delivered by Hazrat Khalifatul Masih Sani (may Allah be pleased with him) in July 1917 (100 years ago). May Allah enable us to follow his words to celebrate true Eid.

Hazrat Musleh Maud (may Allah be pleased with him) says:

“Therefore, you must promise today that when the next Eid comes, it should find a change within you. In fact, you should begin to transform yourself now. This time is very turbulent. Islam has not faced such a time in thirteen hundred years as it faces now. That is why God has accorded the same blessings for the followers of The Promised Messiah (Alayhe Salam) as he had for the believers of The Holy Prophet (peace be upon him). If we lose this time, then we can never avail this opportunity. So we should strive to manifest the truth of Islam all over the world and all the people become its followers. We can become the recipient of the greatest reward granted, because the door will have been opened before us. When we spread the religion of God throughout the world and attain those rewards, then that will be the time of Eid for us. These are the days that will never come again, so value these days and do not waste them. If you do so, you will receive the same rewards as were received by the followers of their respective Prophets.

You should stand up to help and assist Islam so that the darkness of idolatry and disbelief that has encircled the world can be removed. You must fulfill the pledges you have made on the hand of the man commissioned by God. And serve Islam in every manner possible, with your wealth, your life, your pen, and your tongue. These days will never come again. You should work diligently for the success of your faith and pray that may Allah bless you.

May Allah enable you and I to strive in the way of Allah. May we be not niggardly in spending in the propagation of His religion, rather we spend generously so we become deserving of those glad tidings, one of which was bestowed to the Companions of the Holy Prophet (peace be upon him) and the other, which we are to fulfill.

May God show us the day when Islam is spread all across the world and the magnificence of the Prophet of Allah (peace be upon him) is established in the world. May the favors and blessings of Allah descend upon us. May the people of world come toward God. May they are pleased with Allah, and May Allah be pleased with them.

May Allah the Almighty have mercy on all of us. Ameen."

May Allah open our hearts and may we follow.

Wassalam
