A TRIP DOWN MEMORY LANE

On the right, we have a “Messiah has Come” message from Hazrat Mufti Muhammad Sadiq (ra), printed in a local newspaper in 1922

Jesus Has Come

Ever since Jesus said, This generation shall not pass, till all these things be done, there have been hundreds of fixing the dates about the second coming of the Christ, and he never came in the way they thought he would, so all the dates brought disappointment after disappointment for the Christian World. Now Rev. John H. Rutherford of the International Bible Students' Association proclaims that Jesus will come in 1925. Well, 1925 is not very far, only four years more and all will see that it will be nothing better than all the previous disappointments. Listen to me, my dear friends, do not fool yourselves any more with the hope of His appearing like an aeroplane. He has already come and you did not know him. Did he not say that his second coming was to be like that of a thief? Who knows in the dark night when all are asleep that a thief is already in the house? So wake up and waste no more time. Ahmad is your Messiah, your Saviour and your Guide; accept him through his apostle Sadiq and his successor Mahmud.

The Gift of Giving

December is jam packed with Holidays, and the members of Ahmadiyya Muslim Community decided to extend holiday wishes to the neighbors by giving a heartfelt gift. The Lajna made the gifts for both the Khuddam and Lajna/Nasirat to deliver. The neighbors of Bait-uz-Zafar Mosque were very appreciative of the gifts, and our members made sure to extend an invite to our beloved mosque.

Atfal/Khuddam/Ansar News

Starting the New Year Right

While the rest of the world celebrated the new year in their own ways, the Atfal and Khuddam of Queens continued their own tradition of New Year's: spending the night at the mosque. Besides from the usual fun and games, the Atfal made sandwiches to give out to those in need, and Khuddam from the 5 boroughs went out late night to clean up the city. While others spent their night in worldly pursuit, our youth came together to not only bond with each other, but to help out our community as well.

“Office bearers should never forget that though they may be able to hide things from other people, they can never conceal anything from Allah the Almighty. He knows all that we do and whatever is in our hearts and, so keeping this in mind, every office bearer must strive to fulfill their responsibilities to the best of their abilities and save themselves from any form of weakness in their faith or from neglect in their duties.”

- His Holiness Hazrat Mirza Masroor Ahmad (aba)

Monthly Ansar Recap

The monthly meeting was held on December 8th 2019, and alhamdulillah it was a successful meeting. Additionally, the Ansar joined the Khuddam and Atfal on New Year's Eve for Tahajjud and Fajr prayers. My heartfelt prayers for those who came out for the morning prayers!

May Allah

Almighty bless them with a happy, healthy and prosperous new year, and those who were unable to come, may Allah bless them as well and enable them to join next year inshallah.

Lajna/Nasirat News

Starting 2020 with Sisterhood!

The Nasirat also enjoyed a sleepover on New Year's eve, at the Masjid guest house. There were many fun games and activities for the girls to partake in. The Nasirat also reflected on their 2019, and discussed their hopes and goals for the upcoming year.

A NEW YEAR'S

GREETING FROM 1921!

New Year's Card

To keep a New Year's day is no Moslem ceremony, but just to respect the feelings of the people in which we have to work, I wrote New Year's Greetings which were turned into verse by the learned Madam Raha-tullah (Mrs. Garber); and printed in green colour, it was sent along with some literature on Islam to all the Kings and Presidents in the World, the officials and noted men and women in United States, specially in Chicago. Following is a copy of that Message:

I wish you all happiness in the New Year;
And may you attain all the Blessings,
my dear,
Which Allah the Gracious has ordained to send
Through Ahmad, the Guide, the Prophet,
the Friend
And his Master and Teacher Muhammad^P, the Elect
Who was the Prophet, the most perfect.
