After Eight. Storgatan 6 Isokatu.

A music café that started out as a drug free place for young people. Still a cool place with fantastic atmosphere and culture in all fields. A good cultivated lunch is served every weekday. It's familiar hostel is also well recommended. If you lend their orange bikes I recommend you to take a ride to the open sea and Fäboda.

Here is my heart - a place with tranquility. Long sand beach sea view catches your mind and soul. Here I fill my creativity and energy around the year.
Fäboda Café & Kitchen is open in summer time.
Lillsandsvägen 263 Pikkuhiekantie.

Welcome to my studio ACH architecture at Skutnäsgratan 8 Skutnäsinkatu!
Give me a call, I might have a spear cup of coffee for you - dark roasted of course!

Natutor's Swan, Baltic Yacht, national poet J.L Runeberg, JARO, Herra Snellman and former Sun Ice - all are artifacts of Jakobstad, Pietarsaari. Jeppis is the nickname of this cosy small town on the western coastline, close to the sea. Here lives activity! It is a town filled with culture and events. And entrepreneurs. Export is the main industry. After many years abroad I have places in this town that brings me a breeze of world. Some of these pearls I share with you in this personal guide.

Another place that catches my mind is the beautiful surrounding of Johannes chapel. This reminds me of my time in Stockholm and the Skogskyrkogården. A sacral place that also catch the silhouette of town.
Skutnäsgratan 13 Skutnäsinkatu

On the way back to down town, don't miss the very nice café Skorpan at Loveret 14. Have a kanelbulle, cinnamon bun, and take a sourdough bread with you home. In summertime you will get home made ice cream tasted with sea buckthorn. You will love this place! It is situated in the rand of Skata - a unique old wooden town - like Porvoo and Rauma.

This town is filled with music events mostly taking place in the newly build Schaudman hall. If you are visiting on a Thursday you shouldn't miss O'Learys and their Jazz Night with students from the renowned musician education in town.
Alholmgratan 1 Alholmankatu.
If you are enjoying the night life in Jeppis, you are always ending with a legend - Korv Görans. "There is a small barbecue place on the pedestrian steeet" as it says in the Lonely planet guide. A famous crew serves you until last guy!
