

What Fellowship Training Means

Only fellowship-trained ACMS members have received rigorous, hands-on direction and education from experienced practitioners of Mohs surgery.

- › 1-2 years additional training post-residency
- › Minimum 500 cases during training
- › Exposure to rare tumor pathology, difficult tumor locations, and complex wound reconstruction
- › Training programs must pass rigorous application and review process

ACMS American College of Mohs Surgery

