“Quo Vadis, Domine?”

“Where are you going, Lord?”

Legend tells us that when the persecutions under Emperor Nero began in Rome, Peter was fleeing Rome and he came across Our Lord walking toward the city. Peter asked Him this question, and Jesus responded by saying He was going to Rome to be crucified again. Peter understood this is what Our Lord was calling him to do, and he returned to Rome, giving that ultimate witness of his love for Christ by being arrested and crucified upside down.

There will be priests, seminarians, and other young men gathered together for these days. Activities will include prayer (Holy Mass, Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament, Liturgy of the Hours, Rosary, etc.), mountain hiking, sports (soccer, ultimate frisbee, flag football, capture the flag, volleyball), games, discussions and talks.

Quo Vadis Days ...

is a time of recreation, fellowship, prayer, and discussion to help you explore Our Lord's call in your life.

“...only when a young man has had a personal experience of Christ can he truly understand the Lord's will and consequently his own vocation. The better you know Jesus the more His mystery attracts you. The more you discover Him, the more you are moved to seek him.”

– Pope Benedict XVI

Where are you going?

What is the Father's will for you?

The Lord in His love has a great and wonderful plan for you. He is clearly calling us to be saints, but in that path He calls us in specific ways to serve Him. Jesus' plan for some men is to serve Him and His Church as priests. The priesthood is an indispensable, awesome, and beautiful gift and mission. Even though Jesus continues to call young men to this life, sometimes the world we live in makes it difficult to hear His call.
