

Sullivan's Family Foods

Cincinnati, OH

Welcome to the newest Laurel Customer - Sullivan's Family Foods

Located on the western side of Cincinnati, Sullivan's Family Foods is a 6,500 sq. ft. full line grocery store which has very successfully operated in this area since 1992. Owner, Rick Sullivan, opened this business leaving a promising career with the Kroger Company and has never looked back!

The store offers all fresh departments including service meat, deli and produce as well as traditional dairy, frozen food and grocery. Friendly customer service is also a hallmark of this store. Sullivan's also features a very widely known catering operation providing fresh and tasty fare to weddings, business meetings and church functions in the surrounding area. Rick employs many of this 20 store employees as line servers and set-up people for these events in addition to his own family members.

Sullivan's is an active supporter of local churches, schools, sports teams and first responders. Rick is in the store every day and can always be overheard talking to customers and getting updates on their health and wellness as well as community activities.

We are very proud to name Sullivan's Family Foods as one of our Laurel Grocery Company customers and we look forward to many years of serving this fine Cincinnati business!
