Subject: RE: phone

Dear David,

I am not sure whether there is much to discuss on the phone. As Gerard Meijer and I said on Monday, the conditions presented by the Lingua editors are not negotiable. Either they are all met or not.

During our conversation last Monday in Brussels, you promised to send the editors of Lingua, as requested, a written reaction to the letter we sent you last week by Friday 16 October latest, that is today. As you will remember, Gerard Meijer and Natalia Grygierczyk were present, therefore I copy them in this email. I believe written exchanges are best in this delicate situation.

The editors of Lingua look forward to your reaction,

With best regards,

Johan Rooryck

Subject: phone

Dear Johan (if I may),

Further to our conversation on Monday, I just tried to reach you by phone at your office.

It would be good to speak if we can.

I am tied up for the next hour and then will be free.

With kind regards

David
