

QUEERTET

31 Mar | 7.30pm | £13, £11, £6 under 25s

A band of LGBTQI+ jazz musicians bring a special perspective to their wonderful music. Featuring original material and the music of celebrated LGBTQI+ musicians and composers throughout history. Since starring at Pride 2018, they've toured London and sold out two shows at Ronnie Scott's.

96 Festival

ELF LYONS: CHIFFCHAFF

25 - 30 Mar | 7.30pm | £13, £11 conc

The Edinburgh Comedy Award nominee (Best Show 2017) presents her London debut of her one-woman musical about the economy. You read that right. Let's get fiscal. The queen of clown is back and she's making the dismal science fun with a whole orchestra and an Invisible Hand. One of Vogue Magazine's 20 Names of Now, Elf is 'a fast talking, smart-thinking stand-up for whom the adjective 'kooky' could have been invented' THE GUARDIAN.

★★★★
THE TIMES

FOR FAMILIES:

THE DIARIES OF A MISERABLE UNICORN

24 Feb | 11am & 2pm | £5

Sometimes it can be hard work being a unicorn, as Dusty only knows too well. Join us in this interactive storytelling session, to see if you can help cheer up the most miserable unicorn in town. Stay after to make your very own unicorn to take home. For 3 - 7s.

ESCAPE FROM DRAGON CITY

24 Mar | 11am | £6

An interactive storytelling and craft workshop for under 5's, created and performed by Amie Taylor. When a dragon descends on a city, a boy has to pack a rucksack and search for a new home. He crosses mountains and oceans, looking for someone who will let him live with them.

supported by

in association with

Omnibus Theatre
1 Clapham Common, Northside, SW4 0QW
Clapham Common | Tel 020 7498 4699
www.omnibus-clapham.org

@Omnibus_Theatre | @Omnibus_Theatre | /OmnibusTheatre

A SPECTACULAR CELEBRATION OF
Queerness and Theatre

20 FEB - 31 MAR 2019

#96FEST

REPUBLICA

20 - 22 Feb | 7.30pm | £16, £13 conc

Sensual and energetic, Republica tells an untold story of the Spanish Revolution, as seen through the eyes of a stripper, a flamenco dancer and a punk guitarist. With the rise of divisive politics across our world, this show is a timely examination of the last time the idealist actually won.

★★★★ THE GUARDIAN on Don Quijote

THE 'OTHER' FRIENDS OF CLAPHAM COMMON

20 Feb - 31 Mar | 10am - 6pm | Free

A sensory app-based binaural sound experience that explores the past and present of Clapham Common as a cruising ground. The new commission by And What? Queer Arts Festival weaves poetry, memoirs and atmospheric surround-soundscapes.

TINY LGBTQ+ SHOWS

23 - 24 Feb | Workshops: 10am - 6pm
Sunday Sharing: 2pm | £5

Tiny LGBTQ+ Shows is all about taking chances. A building full of LGBTQ+ theatre makers will spontaneously create tons of tiny little pieces of theatre, with people they have probably only just met. A celebration of collaboration, connection and creativity.

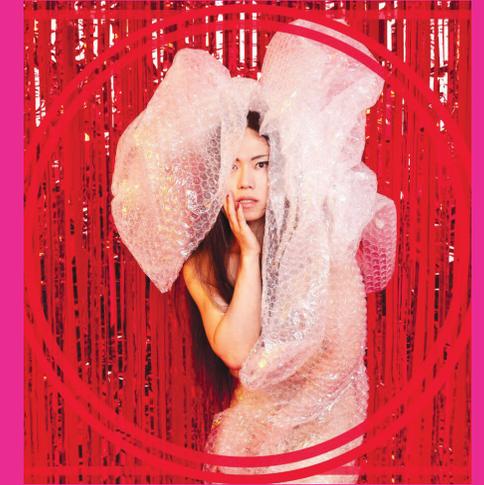

LIPSTICK

26 Feb - 24 Mar

7.30pm/4pm | £16, £13 conc

Part theatre, part drag cabaret, Lipstick: A Fairy Tale of Iran is a story of rage, redemption and weaponised whimsy, which straddles Tehran, Derry and London.

Every night, the clock chimes midnight, and this boy turns into the most beautiful woman in all the world. It's gorgeous. Just, it's a fairy tale.

24/7 LIVE

23 Mar | 9pm | £13, £11 conc

Join British-Chinese pop artist LE FIL as he, she or it explores a 24/7 world of gay-straight men, desire and objectification through a fusion of gender-bending performance art, hip-thrusting dance, twisted autobiography and kaleidoscopic pop music from his Nightlife EP.

★★★★★
'A living, breathing pop sculpture' ATTITUDE MAGAZINE

THE MORNING AFTER THE LIFE BEFORE

20 - 22 Feb | 7.30pm | £13, £11 conc

On a groggy Sunday morning in May, 62% of Ireland is #hungoverforequality, Ann gets a text: 'How's the morning after the life before?'. Gúna Nua presents the internationally acclaimed and multi award winning personal, entertaining tale of weddings, 'coming out' and arguments over who takes out the bins.

★★★★★ 'It was impossible not to be captivated from the start' BROADWAY BABY

THE COCOA BUTTER CLUB

22 Feb | 9pm | £13, £11 conc

A one-off Queer Cabaret showcasing and celebrating performers of colour, from neo-burlesque and poetry, to drag, hoops and voguing. Lotion up, baby, because Sadie Sinner The Songbird will bring you a night bold enough to have you screaming 'yaaaaas queen, smell like cocoa butter up in hurr!'

ENGINE ROOM

26 Feb | 7.30pm/4pm | £6

Dynamic and talented queer theatre makers perform new work in front of an audience for the very first time. Engine Room puts you at the heart of the creative process - Bonnie & The Bonnettes, Opia Collective and Tess Monroe want to hear what you think.

WRITING ON THE BODY

2 Mar | 12pm - 5pm | £25

How do we use bodies to tell stories when there are no more words? Choreographer Camille Jetzer and Iranian journalist Maryam Violet explore testimonies of female Iranian political prisoners. Come and be encouraged to physicalise responses to activist narratives, and explore how dance and movement can engage with other's stories in a non-linguistic way.

TOPSIE REDFERN & FRIENDS

7, 14 & 21 Mar | 9.45pm | £15, £12 conc

Join your hostess, drag superstar Topsie Redfern, for a variety night showcasing London's most exciting cabaret talent.

'Topsie gives me chills... she has so much variety in her act it transcends to any stage.'
ATTITUDE MAGAZINE

DRAWING ON THE BODY

16 Mar | 1pm - 6pm | £25

A guided figure drawing session exploring constructed personas and the processes of 'dragging', hosted by British artist Drucilla Burrell and Iranian artist Vahid Evanezzah. Drag queen Topsie Redfern and drag king Izzy Aman will transition between drag and their daily personas. Come with us behind the scenes and draw the process to explore the social rituals of femininity and masculinity. Basic art materials provided, but please feel free to bring your own.