

Quaker City Coffee Company

Coffee, Careers, Community

We know it is possible to create not only a strong business but also meaningful jobs and careers through the creation and distribution of a great line of coffee products.

Our vision is to have returning citizens working in sales, account management, e-commerce, billing, shipping, accounting and human resources as well as having the opportunity to participate in profit sharing and shape the future direction of Quaker City Coffee Company

QuakerCityCoffee

- Quaker City Coffee is a profit-sharing company that provides hope and acceptance for formally incarcerated individuals through employment and reintegration into society.
- Through employment, training, and socio-emotional support we empower individuals to become contributing members of society.
- We believe the best way to achieve these goals is to provide excellent products and service at a fair price.
- Each cup of coffee changes someone's life.
