

WIFTI 10TH Anniversary SHORT-CASE (Women in Film & Television International Short Film Showcase)

To mark the 10th Anniversary of the showcase and in celebration of International Women's Day, on March 8, 2015, WIFTI will exhibit an international online showcase of the selected submissions.

It is anticipated that WIFT Chapters around the world will host live screenings of the SHORT-CASE on that day.

Cash prizes of $1000, $500, and $250 will be awarded to the top three films selected by the Jury. These prizes will be awarded to the female director.

We encourage members to contact their WIFTI Chapters to participate!

CALL FOR ENTRIES

The Women in Film & Television International Short Film Showcase ("WIFTI SHORT-CASE") is a powerful demonstration of our members' creativity, vision, and artistry. Founded in 2004, the Showcase not only presents selected films from WIFTI Chapters around the world; some of the recent Showcase short films have been nominated for Academy Awards received distribution deals, garnered recognition around the world. WIFTI encourages unique points of view and storytelling from around the world that focuses on subjects/issues that would concern women.

Guidelines for Submissions:

- FREE TO ALL members in "Good Standing" of Women in Film Chapters around the world are eligible to submit their film(s) through their respective chapter. Narrative films, animation, documentaries, are all permitted.
- The films must be directed by a woman AND involve a woman in another key role (i.e.: writer, producer, editor, director of photography etc.)
- Run time must be under 15 minutes. The film should deal with subjects and issues that would be of interest to women.
- The "received by" deadline is September 30. We also offer a "initial" evaluation where filmmakers can ask for feedback of their films. The deadline for this is July 30th.

Submission Process:

- 1) Submit your Video: Upload your video to VIMEO – secured, password protected for use of WIFTI Showcase producers, judges and Chapter representatives ONLY.
