General Information:

Ireland is an island in the North Atlantic Sea. It is separated from Great Britain to its east by the North Channel, the Irish Sea and St George's Channel. Ireland is the third largest island in Europe and the twentieth largest in the world.

Ireland has a mild climate with few extremes. In autumn, (August to October) highest temperatures hit between 57°F and 64°F (14°C and 18°C). The island's lush vegetation, a product of its mild climate and frequent rainfall, earns it the label The Emerald Isle. You can find more information at: <http://www.ireland.com/en-gb/>

Visas:

All competitors and countries are responsible for their own visa applications/requirements. A letter of support/Invitation can be given from the organizers if required. If you need a Visa, you should submit your application at least 12 weeks before your planned travel date to allow enough time for the decision/issue of Visa.

You can check your Visa requirements for travelling to Ireland at this link:

<http://www.inis.gov.ie>

Language:

English is the pre-dominant language spoken on a daily basis in Ireland.

Currency:

The Euro (€) is the currency used in Ireland.

Power Supply:

The voltage in Ireland is the same as the rest of Europe (220 volts). You may need a travel adaptor/s for charging phones etc.

Dublin is the capital and largest city of Ireland.

Dublin is in the province of Leinster on the east coast of Ireland, at the mouth of the River Liffey and bordered on the South by the Wicklow Mountains.

The city has an urban area population of 1,173,179.

You can find more information at:

<https://www.visitdublin.com>

Fingal, Dublin: On the doorstep to Dublin City and home to Dublin Airport, Fingal Dublin offers the best of Ireland; old world charm, scenery, and a rich heritage. Fingal is an historic region, located only minutes from the heart of Dublin City. You can find more information at: <http://www.fingaldublin.ie>

How to get here:

Dublin Airport is an international airport serving Dublin. It is located in Fingal Dublin. It is the 15th busiest airport in Europe.

It is headquarters to Ireland's flag carrier – Aer Lingus, as well as Stobart Air, Ryanair, ASL Airlines Ireland, CityJet and Norwegian Air International. Over 60 airlines fly in and out of the airport, including: Air France, Lufthansa and British Airways.
