

REAL ESTATE AT ITS FINEST

Reality Television from Bahrain to the world!

Arabian Homes, official sponsor of Deals in the Desert, brings you the latest on the hottest reality show in the Kingdom as well as an exclusive interview with Joseph Tito, CEO of JEO Productions.

DEALS IN THE DESERT is a reality television show featuring Bahrain's brokers selling some of the islands' hottest real estate. Catch a rare glimpse of the industry, while feasting your eyes on the glamour of living luxuriously in the Arabian Gulf. Get ready for the deals as these razor-sharp brokers work with the most demanding clients.

Jeo Productions, Film & Tv Experts!

DEALS IN THE DESERT is a concept by JEO Productions, who have local offices, and are excited to produce a show highlighting the mix of modernity and culture found in Bahrain. This being their second television series shot in Bahrain with an international distribution deal, and with a background that spans television and film produced in Italy and Canada, they are ready with a talented crew and over a decade of expertise to make this series a stunning showcase of this powerful industry and the sweet lifestyle that can be found in the Gulf.

Joseph Tito, Executive Producer & Director

Joseph Tito, multi-talented CEO of JEO Productions has an extensive background in the entertainment industry that spans over a decade and includes executive producer, director, screenwriter and actor. A passionate world-traveller and committed to the power of this medium, Joseph has been inspired by the many artists and countries that he has encountered to produce new and engaging material. He has written eight screenplays to date, directed and produced two feature films (Death of the Virgin - 2009, BallaChe Ti Passa - 2005), four short films (Immortal - 2003, Nothing Ever Changes - 2004, Windows - 2004, The Globe - 2006) and also numerous works for television, including pilots, documentaries and government productions. Joseph has enjoyed accolades and critical acclaim within many countries, including Canada, Italy and now Bahrain, where he has offices for JEO Productions. Within the Gulf island of Bahrain, Joseph has expanded the reach of his company to include numerous cultural events, television commercials and shows, as well as the development of their first television series ("Blending in with the Bahrainis - 2014) and a feature film (Dana). Working with many different artists around the world has opened this visionary's eyes to accept and rediscover new perspectives, as well as incorporate them into new ways of addressing and presenting material to create the most emotive and thought-provoking response.

Joseph Tito

Q & A with Joseph Tito

Please share with us the progress of the show.

We are excited to have started production on Deals in the Desert Season One in September, and we will be shooting the entire first season this fall/winter in Bahrain. Already having received much interest from broadcasters, we aim to share broadcasting dates with the public by early next year. The first season will consist of thirteen 30-minute episodes highlighting the brilliant architecture, powerfully planned developments and warm culture found here in Bahrain. We also aim to educate the audience on business in the Gulf, Arabic cultural practices and the unique differences of the real estate industry in Bahrain.

Who are the main cast members? Will other agents be shown as well?

The main cast members are from three different real estate agencies in Bahrain. Svetlana, is a partner of the Hera Real Estate Group, Head of Sales. She brings to Bahrain a professional attitude and an extensive knowledge of the industry to her clients. In her time working with the new Hera Group, her drive and dedication to her clients has brought her much success. She keeps her calm and cool in the midst of the industry heat. Nabeel, an intelligent Bahraini broker who is starting in a new agency, has dived into the industry full force to build within a short time a powerful client list and showcasing exclusive listings. He endeavours to build his business dealings within the show, in order to assist his family with the best life he can provide for them. A dedicated Muslim with deep family values, he works on sealing big real estate deals via his respected connections in the Kingdom. Sheila, a Scottish broker who has lived in Bahrain for almost a decade, brings her expertise to the Property Locators Bahrain. Her sweet nature is mixed with a wealth of knowledge and she is loved by her clients. We will also be featuring a number of agents from different companies that the main cast regularly deal with as we showcase a great sample of the best properties and developments in the Kingdom of Bahrain. If you are a real estate agent that wishes to participate, please connect with us. Oh! And if you are interested in buying a property, we got some great homes to show you.

What can we look forward to on the show?

We are happy to include beautiful properties in many areas of Bahrain! From Amwaj to Durrat, you can see some incredible homes in Riffa Views, Reef Island, Saar, Amwaj, Hamala and more! We are also excited to include the mind-blowing development of Diyar al Muharraq and additional upcoming projects and developments in Bahrain. Furthermore, we have some treats included in the episodes which feature the talented local architects and interior designers and their properties!

How can we keep up to date on Deals in the Desert?

Through Arabian Homes of course! Arabian Homes has exclusive press coverage for Deals in the Desert all the way up to the broadcast airing dates! Stay tuned as we share with you the different interior designers, architects, developers and stunning projects that are all happening in Bahrain this year and in the future.

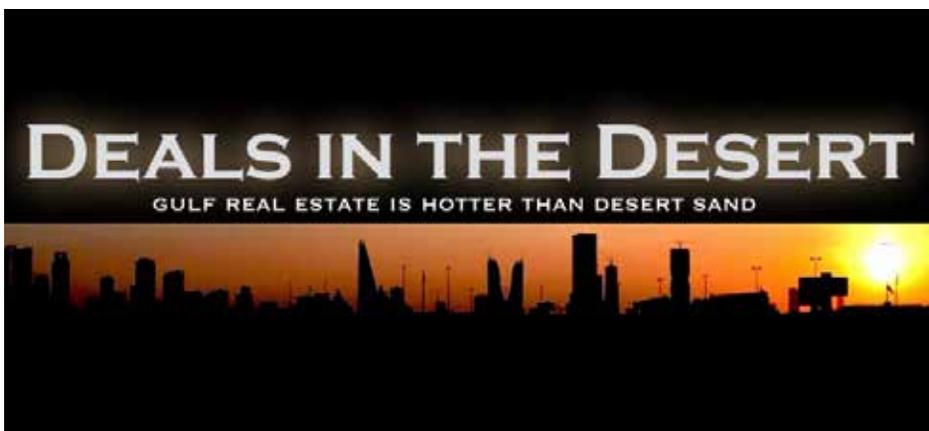

Anything else you wish to share about the show at this time?

We also wish to thank our sponsors: Y.K. Almoayyed & Sons, Domain Hotel & Spa, Dr. Rana's Aesthetic Center, Infinite Technologies, Al Ghassan Motors and Ammar Basheir Design. If you are interested in sponsoring the later episodes please contact us and our producer will work on including your properties or services in this incredible production.

“There is enough business for everyone in Bahrain”

-Svetlana

DEALS IN THE DESERT

GULF REAL ESTATE IS HOTTER THAN DESERT SAND

Do you want to participate? Please contact JEO Productions at info@jeoproductions.com with your request.

Follow the production on:

@jeoproductions

youtube.com/jeopro

Jeo Productions