

Game Day Situational Cues

OFFENSE SIDELINE:

"And that's another... first down for the home team."

"The offense keeps the drive alive with that first down play."

"What a catch! That sets our team up in the red zone ready to score."

"It's 1st and 10 for the home team."

"It's a close game and our home team is driving down the field for a score."

DEFENSE SIDELINE:

"Our team needs a big stop here, let's push em back defense"

"The home team is digging in to get the stop on our own goal line."

"Our team needs to make a stop here to seal the win."

"After that turnover, our team needs to make a defensive stand."

Game Day Situational Process at Qualifiers and State:

The calling of the cues at Qualifiers should be consistent with how the process will be at WIAA State. Game Day Cues process for State:

- Teams will not have advance notice of their cues.
- The list provided by WSCCA (above) will be used.
- The announcer will be the one to announce the cues.
- The announcer will announce a team's cue following their Band Dance.
- The announcer will be given a schedule for the cues on a school-by-school basis.
- It will not be any announcer's responsibility to determine the schedule or the cue. A prepared schedule with a script will be provided for the announcer.
