September 14th and 15th, 2019 at the
New Hope Auditorum
Oak Ridge, TN 37830

Saturday September 14th, 8:30 am till 4:30 pm
Dr. Mike Clumpner will speak on:
“Joint Public Safety Response to the Active Shooter”
“Threat Suppression, Planning, and Training – The First 60-Minutes”

Mike Clumpner, PhD, MBA, NRP is the President and Chief Executive Officer at Threat Suppression, Incorporated. Mike has a PhD in homeland security policy from Northcentral University where he graduated with highest honors and was just announced the 2019 Alumni of the Year. Mike’s dissertation research focused on joint public safety response protocols for shooter events. Mike has lectured globally on numerous topics, personally training more than 100,000 responders on four continents. Multiple U.S. federal agencies and NATO allies have recognized Mike as one of the foremost, international experts on active shooter prevention, response, and recovery.

Mike is currently a full-time fire battalion chief with a large, metropolitan fire department in the Southeast where he commands one of the busiest of the eight battalions in the city. Mike is also a sworn law enforcement officer with the state’s largest law enforcement agency for the past eight years where he has been assigned as an operator/senior tactical paramedic to a full-time, Type I SWAT team. He is a 27-year veteran of the fire service, with 25 years’ experience as a career firefighter and a flight paramedic.

Sunday September 15th 8:30 am till 11:30
Chief John Sullivan will speak on “Developing Critical Incident Decision-Making Skills”

Chief John F. Sullivan, EFO, CFO, MiFireE was a 30+ year veteran of the Worcester (MA) Fire Department (WFD) before accepting the Fire Chief position at the Brookline (MA) Fire Department.

Sullivan, a Worcester native, started at the department in 1987, and in 1994 he was promoted to lieutenant. After the Cold Storage fire in 1999, he was promoted to captain of the training division, where he trained firefighters from all over the world in new safety measures that emerged as a result of the deadly fire. He was promoted to District Chief in 2004, and in 2010 he was again promoted and became Deputy Chief of Operations. In March of 2018, Chief Sullivan departed the Worcester Fire Department to become the Chief of Department of the Brookline Fire Department in the metro Boston area.

Chief Sullivan holds a bachelor’s degree in fire science and a master’s degree in public administration. He lectures nationally and internationally on firefighter safety, and is Vice-Chair of the IAFC’s Safety, Health and Survival section. He has collaborated on several projects with the National Fallen Fire Fighters Foundation and is a member of FireHouse magazine’s editorial board.
Sunday September 15th 12:30 am till 2:30

Major Jarad Phelps of the Prince William County Police Department
And
Assistant Chief Lance McClintock of the Prince William County Fire Department will together speak on

“Building Effective Communications Between Fire, Rescue, and Law Enforcement”

This unified presentation from both fire and rescue and law enforcement focuses on the key role that leadership plays in building effective communications that result in successful operations. The benefits of building and maintaining effective and professional relationships with counterparts within the fire and rescue department and police department will be highlighted by case studies, current department operational initiatives, and personal experiences. The presentation will demonstrate how these positive relationships can effect the common operational picture of public safety, while maintaining the mission of each agency. Applications of lessons to other departments and situations will also be discussed.

Major Jarad L. Phelps serves as the Assistant Chief of Police for Operations for the Prince William County Police Department, Virginia. Prince William County Police is comprised of 699 sworn officers, serving a population of over 450,000 citizens. Major Phelps oversees three patrol districts and the Special Operations Bureau, which is comprised of Traffic Enforcement Unit, Crash Investigation Unit, K9 Unit, Special Events, SWAT, Community Engagement Section, Bicycle Unit and other part-time units such as Civil Disturbance Team, Search and Rescue, Underwater Search and Recovery Team, Marine Patrol Unit, Horse Mounted Patrol, and Incident Management Team. Major Phelps has a Master’s Degree in Public Administration and is a graduate of the FBI National Academy.

Assistant Chief Lance McClintock is with the Prince William County Department of Fire and Rescue in Virginia that is composed of over 689 career uniformed personnel. He has over 24 years of experience in the career fire and EMS service. Assistant Chief McClintock currently oversees the Operations Section of the Department of Fire and Rescue.

Assistant Chief McClintock has a Master’s Degree in Human Resource Management from the University of Richmond, Virginia. He is graduate of the National Fire Academy Executive Fire Officer Program and completed the International Association of Fire Chiefs Fire Service Executive Development Institute.

The 2019 “Secret City” Public Safety Conference is sponsored by the Y-12 Fire Department, Oak Ridge National Laboratory Fire Department, and the City of Oak Ridge Fire and Police Departments. The class is open to all fire department personnel, Law Enforcement personnel, EMS, and Rescue personnel in the State who would like to attend. Seating is limited to 450 students and will be on a first come basis. Tickets are free as the conference is paid for by the sponsors listed as a part of our community outreach and Professional Development Plan.

Call or Email Donna Satterfield at (865) 425-3520 dsatterfield@oakridgetn.gov to reserve your seats!