

TO ALL MEMBERS AND GUESTS OF NSWAFI

You are invited to attend the Annual Social Night run by the NSW Association of Fire Investigators Inc., with a presentation on the subject of:

Fire & Human Behaviour

Todd J Hedglin IAAI-CFI® - Senior Investigator & COO of IRIS Fire Investigations

This unique topic will start with a brief introduction about the definition of arson, a short history of arson and where we stand today. We will touch on the basics of a fire investigation and how this topic may benefit your examination. We will briefly discuss the criminal typology classifications, subsequent motivations, recognized fire setter subtypes and then expand on each with a brief case study and explanation. With each subtype, we will briefly discuss the characteristics of the individuals and some talking points about interviewing them to get the most from your interview.

Todd Hedglin's professional career started with a combined period of over 26 years in public service to include the fire service and the United States Military. In 2006 Todd began investigating fires for both the public and the private sector. With IRIS Fire Investigations, Inc. he has conducted and assisted with investigations in Colorado and various locations around the United States.

Todd is an International Association of Arson Investigators-Certified Fire Investigator (IAAI-CFI®) and is the Operations Officer for IRIS Fire Investigations in Denver Colorado. He conducts origin and cause investigations involving residential and commercial structures, wildland, and vehicle fires. He is routinely called to lecture and present on fire investigations, interviewing, wildland fire investigations and juvenile fire setter issues. He is the current President of the Colorado Chapter of the IAAI, and current Chairman of the Ethics, Practices & Grievances Committee of the IAAI.
