INFORMATION FOUND ON NAUVOO LAND AND RECORDS

The Nauvoo Land and Records Research Center is a repository to primary and secondary source information for individuals associated with Nauvoo from 1839 and 1846. The site also has information on individuals in other locations; Hancock County, Illinois; Lee County, Iowa; Pottawattamie County, Iowa (near Winter Quarters); Douglas County, Nebraska. This information is not easily accessible elsewhere. The Land and Records site in Nauvoo has a database of individuals for whom primary and secondary source information has been compiled. This database presently consists of over 46,000 records.

Each record on this database MAY include the following information:

Property records in Hancock County	Family group records	School records
Marriage records	Temple records	Death records
Nauvoo Legion	Mormon Battalion	Seventies records
Biographies	Histories	Journal Entries

Excerpts from these sources have been scanned to PDF files which can be transferred to a CD or flashdrive and are formatted to be Adobe Acrobat accessible on the computer.

Each record is associated with a multi-letter code that gives a brief identifier of what you might expect to find on an individual's database record. There is also a Nauvoo Land and Records unique identification number or RIN# for each individual. In general, information on an individual's spouse or children is not included on the individual's record. If you want to find out about an entire family you will need to request the information for each name on your family group. Please note that wives are identified by their maiden name.

Each record begins with a summary detailing available information on birthdate, birthplace, death date, death place, names of parents, and marriage date(s). This is followed by a page titled "Notes" which is a table of contents for the documents in the database record. The table of contents is in sequential order:

- Family Group Record
- Property
- Nauvoo Records
- Biographies
- Histories
- Other Sources – Internet Research
- Variant Information

The property, church records, and biographies held here are important pieces of information about individuals who lived in or near Historic Nauvoo. It is intended that the information provided will help you feel closer to your ancestors as you learn about their lives, their sacrifices, and their devotion to the gospel of Jesus Christ.
