VOTE YES ON 1634

IT WILL STOP LOCAL TAXES ON GROCERIES.

The State of Washington currently doesn't tax groceries, but a loophole in the law allows local governments to apply a tax to our food and beverages. Recently, Seattle passed a new tax on everyday beverages, and the Seattle Finance Director admitted that the new tax could lead to higher prices on meats and poultry.

Initiative 1634 will protect us from grocery taxes.

- ✔ Closes the grocery tax loophole so politicians can't tax basic necessities like food and beverages.
- ✔ Protects hard-working families who already pay more than their fair share in taxes.
- ✔ Stops politicians from nickle and diming us at every turn with new taxes.
