

ADULT SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASSES 2018-2019

Revised 08/20/2018

Class	8:00 a.m. Teacher(s)	Room
Early Bird	Margaret Love, Frank Hawkins	203

This class is open to adults of all ages and from any life situation. We are happy to get up early to enjoy fellowship and Bible study, as we try to find how the Bible applies in our everyday lives.

Onesimus Men's Class	John Kincaid	201
-----------------------------	--------------	------------

This class is open to men of all ages. The name Onesimus means "useful," and the goal of this class is to become more useful in serving the Lord. The lessons are Bible-based, and the teaching is practical with lots of application.

Class	9:15 a.m. Teacher(s)	Room
N.O.P. (No One's Perfect)	Libby Young	300C

This diverse class is currently composed of adults in their 50's and 60's but is open to people of all ages. Our class is home to single adults, married couples and folks who attend without their spouse. Our teacher is well-prepared and our discussions are engaging.

Seekers	Drew Pearce, Barry Brooks	201
----------------	---------------------------	------------

This class is comprised of mostly married couples with children ranging from middle school through college, and most of us are very involved in the life of the church. We study God's Word and strive to please God in our lives.

Daily Bread	Mary Beth Young, Meredith Smith	202
--------------------	---------------------------------	------------

We acknowledge the need for God as our Daily Bread and strive to learn about and worship Him every day, not just on Sundays! We are young-ish adults and are vibrantly social. Our classes are discussion-based, and we share openly about our faith.

Come and See	Bob Walker, Mike Brown, Bert Kirby	203
---------------------	------------------------------------	------------

This class is open to adults of all ages and from any life situation. Using a discussion-based format, we address issues faced by today's individuals and society from a biblical perspective. Come and see this Jesus of Nazareth (John 1:46).

Open Door	Andy Clark	204
------------------	------------	------------

This class is mostly in our 60s and 70s, and have well-prepared, biblically-based lessons each week. The door is always open—to come in and learn, and to go out and serve.

Friends Fellowship	Bruce and Tine King	300A
---------------------------	---------------------	-------------

This class is made up of many of our senior adults, and our team of teachers offers a variety of viewpoints. We use Sunday School literature and learner's guides, and we have great fellowship events (especially around the holidays!).

Class	Teacher(s)	Room
Round Table	Emory Hendrix, Will Middleton, Stuart Moore, Amy Moore	202
The Round Table is filled with adults of all ages who engage scripture & open discussion from each other. We challenge ourselves every week to become stronger Christians and supporters of the church. Each lesson is topic driven & scripture based. Come out to the Scout Building and join our Round Table!
Sojourners	Helen Hewitt	300A
This class has a casual, relaxed learning environment with a "from-the-heart" teaching style. The participants in this loving, prayerful group are mostly in their 40s, 50s, and 60s will be quick to welcome and support you.
College/Young Adult I	Spencer Simmons	Family Life Center, Ceramics Room
This class is for college students and other young adults exploring ways to love God with all their hearts, souls, and minds, and to love their neighbors as themselves.
College/Young Adult II	Rachel Inabinet	206
This class includes college students and young professionals seeking to bring our faith to life. We use dialogue to teach, and Sundays are always filled with many questions, some answers, and lots of laughter.
Gleaners	Blaun Bennett, Ryder Martin	300C
Our class is an all-women's class made up of women who feel comfortable with each other and who enjoy and trust conversation among ourselves. After studying Scripture, we discuss our reading and look for application in each of our own lines. Women of all ages are welcome and encouraged to join us.
Welcome All God's Children	Jimmy Stenhouse	203
This class is unique, with single and married persons, male and female, ages 30 to 80. This warm and caring class has two teachers who are interesting, inspiring, and well-prepared, but discussion is always encouraged.
Reflections	David Clyborne, Wendell Cothran, John Kincaid	204
This class is mostly middle-aged adults but is open to anyone. We use the Uniform curriculum, moving through books of the Bible with learning and discussion.
Loaves and Fishes	Don Kirkland, Ron Bridwell	301
This class is a caring, cordial, experienced class, with people in their 50s to those in their 70s. Our teachers are engaging and knowledgeable, and as we are fed on Sundays, we try to multiply those blessings during the rest of the week.
Young Married	Grey Register, Rebecca Register	100
This class is a place where young married couples can gather as a community, study the Bible, and share life together. Our materials and our teachers seek to apply the truths of Scripture to everyday life in a personal and relevant way.
