PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Alice Benner, Principal and Managing Director of Bamboo Equity Partners™, is responsible for overseeing all new equity and real estate investments as well as strategic asset management of the existing portfolio of properties. Her more than fifteen years of experience started at Colliers Turley Martin Tucker where she managed a commercial real estate portfolio of seventeen properties located across the Saint Louis metro area. From there, she became a financial analyst at TriStar Properties overseeing new acquisitions and presenting strategic development recommendations to the investment committee. Most recently, Alice was an advisor with Alvery Bartlett Group to high net worth families helping them identify investment opportunities in hard asset classes such as real estate, energy and natural resource portfolios.

A native Saint Louisan, she is active in marketing to the community with investor education events, in addition to serving as a visiting professor for her alma mater, the University of Missouri – Columbia, fondly referred to as Mizzou. Alice graduated with honors from Mizzou, with a B.S. in Business Administration with emphasis in Finance, Banking, and Real Estate. She is a licensed Missouri Real Estate Salesperson as well as licensed to sell life, annuity, long term care, accident and health insurance, and a notary public.

Alice has many philanthropic interests. She currently serves on the Board of Directors at SouthSide Early Childhood Center, sits on the Marketing and Communications Committee and the Development Committee. In addition, she was the Founding Member of the Saint Louis Young Ambassadors for Opportunity (YAO) a division of Opportunity International headquartered in Chicago, Illinois. Alice resides in Creve Coeur with her husband Jon, son Robbie and dog Teddy.
