

Term 2 Newsletter 2017

Dear ARRENDELL Parents and Students,

We are now into the second half of the year, with preparation for Term 3 now underway.

The staff at ARRENDELL are excited about the new term and the delivery of courses that will continue to position your children ahead of their peers and importantly, by continuing to foster their love of learning.

Feature article: Read about the importance of spelling.

According to a research at Cambridge University, it doesn't matter in what order the letters in a word are, the only important thing is that the first and last letter be at the right place. The rest can be a total mess and you can still read it without any problem. This is because the human mind does not read every letter by itself, but the word as a whole.

If we've captured your interest, find out, " How do we best polish student spelling skills?" - read more now.

Tiny libraries on front lawns, in beaches and in fridges?

There's a world wide craze that's aiming to make books available to everyone, no matter who you are or where you live.

Maybe it's time you got creative and built your own?
