

We are excited to unveil our new membership platform that will provide a much better and more collaborative experience for members of the Northeast Hop Alliance. If you are a current Northeast Hop Alliance member, your membership has moved over to the new platform and is valid through January 1, 2018. We need you to take a few steps to finish the process.

Click on the “Membership Portal” to move your membership over to the new host. The Membership Portal button is located in the header and circled in red in the photo below.

If you are a New Member or your dues have lapsed, please complete the steps under “Create an Account”. If you are an existing member, please follow the steps as if you have forgotten your password. Your log-in for member planet is whatever e-mail address you use for your Northeast Hop Alliance membership.

Joining Northeast Hop Alliance

Please complete as much contact and location information as possible as this will complete your profile and help you better connect with other growers. There is no need to provide any information about your education or job. Under family, feel free to add anyone who may be affiliated with your farm (even if they are not family). Be sure to fill out the second page of the member profile as it is the important information about your hopyard
