This book is dedicated to everyone who is seeking to find his or her true self for these New Times that are approaching rapidly.

This dedication is also to all of the guides I have been learning from, and to everyone to whom I have passed my knowledge, in one form or another about Universal knowledge. I also dedicate this book to everyone who has taken part in making what this book is today.

I thank all Star Brothers and Sisters of all races. I release my love to all of you who exist in all the Universes. My heart is filled with the wonderful information you have shared with me and you have enriched my life.

Dedication

I dedicate this book to Cindy, my soul mate and wife. Even though it was only a short five years that we had together, we cherished and loved each other deeply.

In Memory of Cindy M. Green (Kiser)

FOREWORD

In this series of four books, you will embark into a journey that will unlock the deepest spiritual understanding of who we are in this vast life that we are part of. Since 1968, Kiazer has brought forth several questions, including but not limited to: Have we lived before? Along with who are we as human beings along with our duality of a spirit / soul being that co-exists within us? Is there other life amongst the countless numbers of stars? Kiazer has delved deep into these and many other questions in his search for the truth of our existence, in the vast universe we all live in.

At this time of August of 1987, Kiazer had decided to tell his experiences of his journeys that started in the summer of June 1968.

Michael was born on April 21, 1966, and he experienced a horrific event in June 1968. This brought forth a highly evolved being of pure energy named Kiazer. This started a physical journey unlike any other that Kiazer had ever experienced before.

Kiazer traveled his unique path into this quest of spiritual reawakening and learning who he is and what life consists of. He uncovers the answers to these questions and much more.

This reawakening involves our next step in human evolution, going from our third dimensional existence into the fourth and fifth dimensional existence, as we learn to claim who we are as human beings, along with a spirit /soul being that co-exist within us for their own experiences, which are set apart for our experiences.

As the Earth, is making Her quantum leap into the next existence, I ask you, “Are you ready to make your leap with Her to a new beginning?”

It is time for all to learn who we are. A new beginning is in front of all of us.

I hope you gain the understanding of the knowledge that has been kept away from you for over twelve thousand years. When you are finished reading this series of books, I hope you will have a wider view on a part of life that has been somewhat of a large mystery and that is not fully understood. I hope you will grow in knowledge of understanding the universal language of the true knowledge of life, as Kiazer has come to unlock the knowledge that is within all of us.

Preface

This is a true story about the journey of Michael (Kiazar) as he embarks upon the journey of universal knowledge travels down his path of destiny, which started back in the summer of 1968 when he was two years old. He had no concept of what he would be getting into at that time. He was drawn to learning the truth of our existence which, at that time; Michael had thought was common knowledge to all who live on Earth. While the years went by, Michael learned that the knowledge he had was not common knowledge. Nevertheless, this did not keep Michael from continuing to learn the knowledge of the origin of life that he was becoming aware of.

The years passed and Michael delved deeper and deeper into the forbidden knowledge that had been, and still are considered forbidden by the world religions highest caretakers of the many religions of Earth's belief systems. These caretakers decided to keep this 'True Knowledge' about our existence and of the many off world beings and these beings knowledge about life, hidden from all.

In the early fall of 1968, Michael began to reawaken his knowledge within him, which consisted of the off-world beings and the multi-dimensional worlds that exist around the earth. This reawakening began the removal of the 'veils of illusions' and Michael came to realize that there are many, many veils. In addition, by the summer of 1977, he found himself drawn to continue on his path of destiny of discovering who he was to become, as his future became his present.

These are the journals of Michael's journeys as he reawakens the knowledge, which has been forbidden for anyone to delve deep into and to learn, what all those religious caretakers consider forbidden for all to look into or even to ask questions about.

Journey with Michael as he helps to remove the 'veils of illusion' that have been placed upon the human civilizations for many, many eons. Within these journeys all of you will understand the dynamics of your physical being and of your spirit / soul being, with a completely new awareness of the universal knowledge of yourselves.

God, which that is the power that God gives to all life that is in the form of his self....

This acceptance is the Consciousness - The eye to the Mind of God.

CHAPTER 1

The Journey Begins

At the last half of the twentieth century and before the beginning of the second millennium, there are several highly evolved beings choosing to re-incarnate at this time. This is one story of one of those beings that had returned to help the civilizations of Earth to evolve spiritually and to learn of the truth of what had been kept in most secrecy by all the religions of Earth. On the eastern region of the continent of North America, in the city of Elmira, New York, on the eastern region, nestled in a valley surrounded by rolling hills, on April 21, 1966 about 5:30 p.m., a male being named Michael was born to, Judy and Garry. Little did they know of Michael's life path, that the physical being of Michael had chosen to experience on this physical plane of Earth at this time.

Sometime around two years and two months later, around the morning of June 18, 1968, Michael's mom was taking care of his little sister Tammy who was about three months old, Michael mentions to his mother, "mom... I am not feeling good." So his mother Judy told Michael in a soothing voice, "Go on up to your room and lay down and rest for a while, and come down when you want!”. Michael went upstairs to his room and rested for a while.

After about four and a half hours of resting, around 2:15 p.m. Michael decided to get up and go downstairs to where his mother and sister are. Michael stood up from his bed, made his way to the stairs, took one step down the stairs, and tumbled down thirteen steps to the bottom. A loud crashing noise of glass was heard and Michael’s mom looks over to the steps, she could see from the chair that she was sitting in that Mike’s head was sticking out through the glass door. Judy said in a frantic voice, “Oh my God!”. Judy jumped up from the chair and ran over to the closed door that closes the downstairs from the upstairs. Michael’s head was sticking through the glass door that was shut with Mike on the other side. Judy began to have tears, and she was fearful as she looked around the floor and had noticed how Michael’s head was in the door. She ran to Michael and she saw that the glass around his neck was like daggers all the way around his neck. All of the glass shards were about a half inch or less and Judy said to Michael, with fear, “Stay still... And try not to move.” Michael was on his hands and knees on the steps with his head sticking through the closed door. Judy took a few steps into the kitchen, grabbed a towel, and tried to put the towel between the glass shards and Michael’s neck. Then Michael’s Mom mentions to Michael with fear, “Stay still. I’m going to get help...” Then Judy ran out the front door with fear, in her voice, yelling for Ida from next door to come out and help, “IDA... Ida... call for help Mike’s head is sticking through the glass door and the door is shut...”

About 2:30 p.m., with-in seconds of Judy running outside for help, Michael's arms gave away and Michael died within seconds. Seconds after Michael had died... time had stopped.

Michael's body was removed from the glass door and all the blood was cleaned from the glass door, by the means of teleportation by a clocked starship that was in the area. And another being named Kiazer Wilhelm was on board of this ship. He was similar in appearance and age to Michael, he was then teleported into Michael's place of having his head placed into the glass door, like Michael was seconds ago. Then time started again. Judy ran back inside, and checked on Tammy, Michael's four-month-old sister. Judy noticed that Tammy was still asleep during all of this, and then Judy went back over to where Michael was. Judy still with fear in her voice mentioned to Michael, "Your still alright, Ida is calling and getting help." Two minutes later Ida came over and watched Tammy. With in another two minutes, Del, Ida's Husband shows up first. He worked at the City yard of Elmira, just about four blocks away from them. As Del arrived at their home, Ida yelled at Del as he was getting out of his car, "there is a ladder next to Judy and Garry's house on the side by the patio." Del ran outback of Judy and Garry's home and climbed the ladder to the patio roof. He then pulled off the screen from the window that was open. He climbed through the window and down the steps to be on the side of the door where Michael was to hold him to make sure that his arms would not give out. About ten minutes later, the firefighters and ambulance arrived around 2:35 p.m. to remove Michael's head from the door.

After they remove all the glass shards from around Michael's head, they removed his head from the door. They were able to open the door and Judy was sitting on the floor to the side, Del lifted Michael from the steps and took him over to his mother and Judy held Michael close to her and in tears with a frantic voice she said, "Your OK... Your OK...!" She kissed him on the head and said, "I am glad that I did not lose you. I love you!" The paramedics checked Michael out and by all of their amazement; Michael did not have any scratches of any kind on his head or around his neck where the glass shards were. The paramedics handed Michael back to his mother, then the paramedics picked up their equipments, and they left. Judy went into the front room and held Michael and his sister Tammy close to her, with tears. Del, cleaned up the broken glass, and Ida stayed with Judy for a while until Garry made it home from work around 3:15 p.m. Judy and Garry did not notice anything different about their son Michael, that is that Michael was not really Michael. All of the events of Michael dieing that day were removed by those beings in that invisible starship above the area at the time of this event happening. They were highly evolved beings and they knew how to control and to stop time for they had stopped time for several minutes to clean up the event of Michael dieing and as Kiazer Wilhelm placed himself in Michael's place.

Enters a being from a distant place and time

At this time, Kiazer Wilhelm began his unique destiny that was laid out before him as Michael. Kiazer's journey begins on earth as being Michael at the age of two. By the time Kiazer/Michael reached the age of two and a half years, he took interest in the star traveling beings that were from other star cultures within the Milky Way Galaxy.

Michael began to see how the people of earth were viewing the other life forms that were visiting this world and how the people of earth viewed these off world beings. During the many centuries past and through the 1960's there had been many people reporting what has been termed Unidentified Flying Object (UFO) sightings. Some of the reports were made into television series such as Project Blue Book in the year 1968-1969, to explain this UFO phenomenon away. Other shows were made into movies for television and the silver screen. In the late 1960's came a TV series called Star Trek created by Gene Roddenberry along with his Star Trek films that followed.

Kiazer also noticed that during the years between the 1950's and 1975; various religions and sectors of the public were saying that any person who is involved in metaphysics was considered to be working with the devil and the energies of the supernatural.

When Michael came of the age of five in 1971, his parents started taking him to church Sunday school at Christ's United Methodist Church, and it was here that Michael was taught about one of the earth's religions called Christianity. It was here that started Michael's learning's into the origins of life as he was taught through the Church. As months and years went by Michael began to ask questions about life and about the two so-called beings that are termed as God and the Devil. He asked why they were called God and the Devil and he continued to ask about the past civilizations on earth, to his Sunday school teacher's through the years. His Sunday school teachers answered those questions the best that they could. However, Michael knew that there was more than what they were teaching.

As the year 1977 approached, Michael began to notice a pattern within the many governments along with the many world religions they were trying to cover-up and hide the truth from the people about other life forms, which are about those star beings that have been amongst the people of Earth for the past 100,000 years and longer.

At the age of eleven in sixth grade, Michael also took interest in writing and reading ancient Egyptian hieroglyphs, along with learning about other cultural beliefs system such as Hindu, Buddha and many other religious beliefs that are spread across Earth.

On May 25, 1977 a completely new approach to this higher spiritual awareness was presented in a film that also combined vast starships, aliens, humans and psychic powers. For the first time in this modern age, the public began to view psychic ability differently, including Michael, as he watched this particular film. This film was George Lucas's third film released on May 25, 1977 called 'Star Wars IV: A New Hope'. Michael witnessed how this helped the public begin to understand psychic ability. Shortly after the next two Star Wars films were released, the public was more spiritually involved in their understanding of the messages of these films.

In the early 1980's, some of the population around the Earth that had been negatively viewing those who were spiritually and metaphysically aware began to see things differently and were beginning to accept them, to some degree.

It was at this time that about a quarter of the people of Earth started to shift in their understanding about life and to become aware of their responsibilities as humans on Earth. People began to wake up to the understanding of all life in the Universe that is within every one of us. However, only few of us had learned how to tap into this knowledge and we were able to teach how they can awaken this knowledge within themselves.
