A Search into the Forbidden Questions

For the past 27 years, Kiazer has been continuing to delve deep into the stories of those from many eons ago, which deals with the stories of the battles of the star beings, on Terra and amongst the countless star systems across the Milky Way Galaxy. As Kiazer continues down the path of destiny, he removes the veils of illusions to learn the Truth of the Universal Knowledge. This path takes Kiazer down many avenues.

As Kiazer continues, steadfastly down the path of destiny, his spiritual reawakening takes him down the many avenues of the various religious beliefs systems of Earth over the past 27 years. While Kiazer reawakens the countless knowledge within himself, during this time, he finds the same materials that correlate to his knowledge. This knowledge is no longer part of any society other than to those guardians, which are preserving the knowledge. Some day this knowledge will become a part of the entire world of Earth but only time can tell when the people of Earth are truly ready to learn of the truth. Because, presently the people of Earth are still not ready for what it entails and the responsibilities that come with the knowledge of truth. It's not an easy burden for those who possess this knowledge...

In an earlier gathering, Kiazer has shared some of his insight / Knowledge about some of the aspects of life. Within this second Book, Kiazer continues to share his knowledge with you as he traverses down the path and learns who he is. While researching these questions of life, Kiazer learns of the Ancient stories that are often referred to as Myths of Creations and of gods and devils. This Book is part two, in the ongoing Journey series; it picks up where the previous one leaves off. Likewise, other books will follow. These Books are a journal of Kiazer's continuing search; of Who We Are and becoming that Being, we once were, in order to understand what life is.

So, it is up to the guardians, like Kiazer, along with many others as well to make sure this knowledge is preserved, in its entirety, so this knowledge can be put out to all Humans when the time is right.

What you are about to embark into -- are glimpses of what is about to become part of life on Earth once again, in due time. Because the humans on Earth cannot keep living the way they are today and have been for the past 5,000 years-.

There is a change. This change will come like the changes, of the past. The way that all humans have been living will end...

A New way of living will start A NEW WAY for all.

Within this journal, Kiazer brings to light, some of these ancient stories, which correlates with what he brought to light within in Book 1. These materials are dated as far back as 7,000 years ago. Additionally, it tells about a myth, which dates back to around 42,000 years ago and possibly even older.

With writings taken from his journal, some of what you will learn about in connection with the Universal Knowledge includes:

- 1- The Ancient Battles of the past...
- 2- The True meaning of the word god(s) and devils...
- 3- The creating of the religions, of today...
- 4- The names of god(s), of the past...
- 5- Taking responsibilities for WHO WE ARE...

All research within these pages is just that for the researcher, 'myself', and this is the Truth. This is what I found during in my research, and it correlates to what I believe about the universes around us, seen and unseen.

For the reader this is just information? I do encourage the reader to go out and research on you own, see the scope of information that is available. You are about to learn the Knowledge of what life is really about throughout this entire series.

I will say this; do not believe everything that is told to you, unless you can prove it is true. This is what I have done and what I found.

To some of you that will receive this Book, you will feel that what you are reading has truth to it. As for the others... Well, you are not going to be convinced.

Remember, always ask, WHY!

There is one more thing. Just when you think, you have all the pieces, to the puzzle of life... Well, think again, the puzzle never ends...

Never...

After gathering all materials, I had to figure out how to assemble it along with how far back into the Ancient knowledge I needed to go to show how everything started. I had to do this without putting too much information into each book. It would be all too easy to end up overwhelming the reader. I know it will end up overwhelming readers, because I experience this all the time and I have been researching this type of materials and many others on other topics for over 25 years.

At the end of this book, you will find an intense list of research materials. As I mentioned in the past and I'll say it again later, this is only a fragment of the Knowledge of the Ancients...

You will learn that Earth has a very old history that is not being told. This Knowledge has been guarded and considered secret by all world religions and governments along with the mainstream sciences.

Within this book, I am going to shine some light on this Knowledge that will help everyone understand our place here on this planet and also among the Universes, seen and unseen, which are all around us.

Remember, this is only the tip of the iceberg, and this is just the beginning. What you are about to embark on within this book, is only a fraction, out of several thousands of pages of the materials, I have explored in my search of, "The Universal Truth." There is still Knowledge out there that is waiting to be relearned or remembered.

This book is set up to start, somewhere in the Beginning.....

Even though there is no such thing, as the Beginning...

The time period I will start from is around 300,000 years BC. This seems to be a good time frame to initially explore from.

Well, on second thought, let's start at 100,000(B.C.E.) years ago... (BCE)= Before Current Era-True Meaning. I have to state at this point that no matter what you've been taught, there is a much of history not being told. Why is this? Well you will learn things within this book, in a way that you never have.

Are there really gods out there? On the other hand, are they merely beings that are not any different from us; beings that are merely more advanced, by thousands of years, in all aspects of life, such as Spirituality, Technology, and evolution?

Lets say, when these beings first came from the stars 50,000 – 5,000 years ago and even further back, they were looked upon and accepted as somehow superior to humans. Then centuries later and through time, these beings again visited planet Earth, but the people on Earth started calling them gods; merely because there was a new generation of people on the planet who had only read stories about these beings that came from the stars.

So, when people on the planet had their chance to meet these Star Beings, they started to view some of them as gods-even though they were not gods. Some of these Beings that came from the stars were also of their next generation as well. Thus, some of these Beings accepted the roles of being the god's of the people of the Earth and thereby started the god's theory through the centuries.

If before 4,000 years ago, these so-called gods were seen on a daily basis, then where are they now? And:

- 1) Why for the past 2-3 thousand years, have we not witnessed any “gods”? If they are truly gods, why are they not seen during these last 4,000 years?
- 2) If they really are gods, then why aren't they showing themselves openly in today's society?
- 3) Or, did the generation of Star civilizations that played the roles of god's die off? And, did their next generation of Star Beings realize what happened? Are these Star civilizations waiting for humanities next generation to evolve and move away from calling them deities? Instead, why not look at these Beings from the stars are more like us and do not mistake them as “gods”?

For the past 2-3 thousand years, no one had seen any of these Beings that are playing the roles of god's. But, now since the 1800s we are witnessing Beings with this advanced Spirituality and Technology that do come from the stars. Nevertheless, they ARE NOT gods. They are merely Beings. Not any different from us except they are thousands of years ahead of us Spiritually, Technology and in evolutionary aspects as well. You will see how some of these beings took the word “god” and used it for their own benefits.

Some of these Star Beings manipulated the True meaning of life in a way to discourage humans from learning about whom we are and that they are our progenitors (creators). This is often used to control the masses with fear, by saying if you don't believe that these beings are 'gods' then you will be judged harshly and punished. This became a religion of positive (good) and negative (evil/fear). Then whatever these beings say to fear, is either good (positive/beneficial), or bad (negative/harmful),

All of this was adopted into modern society and it brought forth the religions of today. When will these religions end? It's past time for the older ways of the Ancients to come back into existence.

This will all come into the light around 2012-2025, which this will start the NEW AGE - A NEW CYCLE of life on Earth.

This Book is assembled in a way to bring readers the Knowledge about Life and to bring forth a vital missing link on how the evolutionary process started. You will be able to see how the religions theory of the so-called six-days of creation is false. You will also learn how religions were created in order to impose control over people.

You will learn why the religions have conspired to hide this truth from you and create their own so-called god's and devil's, and told the masses not to look at other aspects of life. People are told, "NOT TO ASK QUESTIONS," and that the masses need to do as they are told by religions. The religions have gone about changing the truth of Life, to fit their own needs.

You will see how all this came to happen!

I have this Book laid out in a way so, you can see how things changed from a viewpoint of the beginning to the present...

Throughout this series you will find that the 'Earth' is referred to by many of her other names which are used by a variety of past civilizations. Be aware that the earth is also called, 'Terra', and, 'Gaia', along with 'Earth'. Just so readers are not confused.

The Terra Papers

Excerpts from The Terra Papers 1 & 2 By Robert Morning Sky

Italics are mine

This is a story that only a very few people know about. This is one story out of many, out of the so-called missing link of the beginning, of the evolution process. This Story takes us back to 100,000 years ago, to what might be the 1ST-2ND Stories of creation of the humanoids and of the creation of the Human race. You will see a lot of similarity in the story that parallels, with Star Wars, Star Gate the Movie and the TV series that followed with Star Gate Atlantis, and with Zecharia Sitchin Books 'The Earth Chronicles'.

3 July 1947 - Roswell, New Mexico ***

A bright, disc-shaped object was reported streaking over the skies of Roswell. Several callers reported seeing the unidentified object flying in a northwesterly direction before it disappeared over the horizon. The Army Air Force Field has confirmed the discovery of unidentifiable debris at a wreckage site in a location northwest of Roswell.

Therefore, begins one of the most infamous incidents in Man's history, the crash of a 'flying saucer'. Some say that this was the beginning of Man's contact with the enigmatic 'disk' and according to some, its occupants. Were there beings in the Roswell disk? Were these beings spirited away, to be studied and de-briefed?

On 13 August later that same year, another disk crashed in the night. Six young Indian Men who had been out camping saw the crash. Searching out the site, the six were able to find the wreckage before the soldiers arrived.

Amidst the twisted metal and charred desert bushes, they would make a startling discovery. There was a survivor! An unconscious being injured nevertheless alive, rather than abandon him to the soldiers, the youths chose to take the Being with them. The six spent the next few months nursing their Visitor back to health.

In time, the Star Being would come to trust the six. By using a small crystal to create images, the Visitor began to communicate with the young men. Calling him the Star Elder, the youths sat at the knee of their Friend, examining all of the crystalline images with great care, piecing together the incredible history of our Solar system and Mankind itself.

Star Elder's message was simple. Star Beings have been here since Earth was a barren rock. They were here when Men were created and they have been here throughout there evolution. In some cases, their involvement was benevolent in some times it was not.

This is the Story of Bek'Ti...

GENESIS (300,000 B.C.)

The explosion rocked the Nothingness of the Void. Primordial 'essence' was thrown violently outward. Like a primeval ocean, wave after wave crashed out into the black pit of the Void. Nothingness beheld Chaos, Chaos poured out into Nothingness. As the primeval waters streamed outwards, rivers of dark 'essence' swirled together, forming huge whirlpools. As the whirlpools spun inwards, the 'essence' condensed into clouds of gas. Superheated from the compression force in the core of the swirl, sparks ignited the volatile clouds. Explosion after explosion formed enormous balls of fire, supernovas of brilliant red and dwarf stars of blazing blue. Like islands in the waters of 'essence', the stars formed from the swirls in the spinning galaxies. Time after time, the process was repeated in the Void...time after time, a galaxy was born.

In time, one of these galaxies would come to be known as 'ERIDANUS'; this is a history of one small part of ERIDANUS the Human species within, (The Milky Way Galaxy) and a tiny world that is known as Terra, 'EARTH'.

( 100,000 B.C.)

In the swirling primordial 'waters' of ERIDANUS, many of the stars gave birth to worlds of their own. From the gases and dust thrown out from the suns, the planets condensed and cooled. Elemental gases combined to form moisture; the rain fell to form oceans. Thunderstorms raged, the oceans tossed and turned, crashing on the shores of the surface lands. In the midst of the lighting and fury, a single spark flashed, creating in one microsecond a single cell of life.

Single celled life form combined to create multi-celled creatures, multi-celled creatures became complex beings with billions of cells... fishes, insects, birds, reptiles, plants and mammals. As many different creatures as there are stars in the galaxy, came into existence.

In addition, in time, 'Humanoids' evolved. Fish humanoids, bird humanoids, Reptile humanoids, Mammal humanoids and humanoids of every kind, became the consistent outcome of evolution.

As primordial ERIDANUS MAN developed, his caves gave way to huts, gatherings of huts became settlements, and settlements became cities. The trapping and hunting of animals gave way to fur trading; fur trading gave way to markets... Moreover, so on....

Then ERIDANUS MAN looked up, up into the skies. In addition, he saw his moon. He created ships to carry him skyward, and his conquest of the moon began. As he stood on the moon, as he surveyed the lunar cities, he looked up and saw the stars above him. Seeking more, he moved skyward again. This time neighboring worlds were discovered. ERIDANUS MAN conquered the environment of the new world, and the cycle began again.

Therefore, it was that ERIDANUS MAN met ERIDANUS MAMMAL MAN, ERIDANUS REPTILE MAN met ERIDANUS INSECT MAN, and an ERIDANUS REPTILE MAN greeted them all. In time, they learned from each other and they lived together.

In addition... They went to War.

Primitive ERIDANUS MAN had become a 'civilized' ERIDANUS MAN; primitive war gave way to the Science of War. Death in all its horror became a tool of Progress. Galactic kingdoms in ERIDANUS rose and fell, civilizations prospered and died. A continuous series of wars engulfed the entire galaxy. No single Empire endured for long. None save one....

THE 'SSS' EMPIRE

In the galaxy of ERIDANUS, the way of things became war, violence and turbulence. Surfacing above other races as the Supreme Masters of War, the 'SSS' Beings, (so-called because of the hissing sound they made as they spoke), weathered war and chaos to seize and retain a sizable portion of the Ninth Sector of the galaxy. Through originally ruled over by Kings of repute, it was under the 'SSS' Queens that the Empire was to reach its pinnacle. Known as the 'SSS-T', the Queens and their techniques of rule became the very embodiment of Royal tribute to the deadlines of the reptilian Queens.

In a galaxy of chaos and war, the SSS beings had no peer or competition. Ruthless in command, and efficient in their cruelty, the SSS-T Queens were brilliant politicians and war strategists, using events to advantage and manipulating wars to their advantage and gain.

Providing the Royals with the power to conquer and reign over their foes was a powerful military force, unmatched and unequalled by any other. Comprised of tall imposing figures, the SSS Warriors were cold-blooded warriors with frightening dragon-like faces. Though evolution had long since removed their scale-like skins, the plates on the body armor gave an impression of fierce, dinosaurs beings. Only a long ridge of bone rising from the forehead and trailing back and over the head remained to hint at their reptilian ancestry. Known as the 'M-K' or 'M-G', the appearance of the SSS Warriors alone was enough to strike fear into an opponent's heart.

Countless wars over billions of years had taught the SSS Queens a vital lesson, an enemy of rebellious subject serves no purpose if executed. However, if the brain was re-programmed, resistance was eliminated and an able body was added to the labor force. Mind control was the SSS-T Science of choice.
