OFFICIAL TREATER AGREEMENT

Creating a safe & enjoyable evening for Greenville families in the heart of the community.

After reading the statements below, please check all points as you understand and accept accountability of a responsible treat or activity stop.

___ I understand that all treaters working my treat stop must be identified with the Official Beggars' Night Treater Badge (even if they are wearing a costume). Badges will be delivered the week before the event with additional badges available only at the Main Street Greenville office until 12:00 pm the day of the event.

___ I understand that costumes for treaters are optional, but encouraged. Decorating the building, windows, sidewalk, etc., is also encouraged.

___ I understand that not-so-spooky is age-appropriate for this event. Event organizers may ask me to remove props / costumes identified as too spooky, morbid or gross for children as young as 2-years old.

___ I understand if my business is NOT on Broadway, I am still allowed to participate. My business will be assigned a space by the Beggars' Night committee, which will be communicated to me the week of the event.

___ I understand that the parents of our community are depending on my business to ensure the safety of our treats. Consumable products must be wrapped or packaged.

___ I understand that my business is responsible for all set-up and costs associated with our treat and activity stop.

____ I understand that Main Street Greenville's Beggars' Night committee works in partnership with the Early Bird to coordinate communication and enhancements for the parade and Beggars' Night event.

____ I understand that I am encouraged to give timely feedback regarding success, enhancements, issues, concerns of this event by emailing info@mainstreetgreenville.org.
