Local Democrats Host CFO Candidate

Okaloosa Democratic Party hosts candidate running for Florida Chief Financial Officer.

June 10, 2018, Shalimar, FL. — The Okaloosa County Democratic Party (ODP) announced today that it will be hosting a ‘Meet & Greet’ with Jeremy Ring the Democratic candidate running for Florida Chief Financial Officer on Monday June 25 from 6:00 p.m. – 7:30 p.m. at Harbor Docks in Destin (538 Harbor Blvd.).

“Its an exciting time to be a Democrat in NW Florida,” said Tom McAuliffe a member of ODP’s Executive Committee. “We’re seeing more community activity than ever before and voters have a plethora of candidates to choose from! We hope you’ll join us for food, fellowship, and conversation. This is a great opportunity to meet a state-wide candidate so please bring your questions and concerns!” he added.

In 1993, Jeremy Ring opened the first East Coast office of Yahoo in New York. After helping the company grow from a startup to a household name, he moved to Florida to raise his family and was elected to the State Senate in the 31st district (Broward County). As a state senator, he was known for his expertise in business development and his bipartisan credentials. For more information please visit the candidate roundup section of our website.
