

PRESS RELEASE

Robert Jones joins Symvan Capital in Senior Business Development Role

London, UK – 17 August 2020

Robert Jones has joined Symvan Capital in a senior business development role with a particular focus on driving the firm's relationships with wealth managers in central and the north of England.

Robert joins from Blackfinch where he was Senior Business Development Manager since 2018, and had similar roles at Triple Point and Downing. Prior to that Robert had business development roles at both Investec and Barclays Wealth focussed on intermediary business development in central and the north England and Scotland.

Kealan Doyle, CEO of Symvan Capital, said "We're very excited to have Robert on board to expand our capabilities in the north. His depth of experience and knowledge of the tax-efficient investment market complements our growing team."

Robert Jones, said "I'm delighted and very excited to join Symvan Capital to assist in the promotion of their portfolio of successful EIS and SEIS offerings."

-ENDS-

About Symvan Capital Limited

Symvan Capital is a London-based award-winning EIS & SEIS technology venture capital fund manager. Symvan Capital invests in B2B software and technology growth companies making a material impact in their industry with the potential to scale.

For further press information, please contact:

Symvan Capital Limited

Kealan Doyle

kd@symvancapital.com

Symvan Capital Limited

Nicholas Nicolaides

nn@symvancapital.com