

Federation for Jewish Philanthropy
OF UPPER FAIRFIELD COUNTY

Fall 2018 Allocations Open Application Process

for:

Projects or programs which foster a cohesive and engaging Jewish community, whether through building integrated community that transcends geographic boundaries and congregational affiliations or increasing connection with the unaffiliated or under-affiliated.

Application Deadline: September 28, 2018

Eligibility: Any non-profit organization or congregation located within the Federation for Jewish Philanthropy of Upper Fairfield County's catchment area or serving the Federation's catchment area. These allocations are limited to projects or programs meeting the above-described objective and are not for general organizational support. Organizations/congregations may apply in partnership.

Total pool available for allocation: $8,000

Please submit 10 copies of this application, along with emailing one pdf version of the application by September 28, 2018 to:
