

Where do the Candidates for U.S. Senate Stand on LIFE?

	Abortion on Demand	Taxpayer Funding of Abortion Industry	Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act	Dismemberment Abortion Method
 Amy Klobuchar	Supports abortion on demand.	Voted to continue taxpayer funding of the abortion industry.	Voted against the Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act, which would protect unborn babies at 20 weeks, when they are able to feel pain.	Did not return the National Right to Life Candidate Questionnaire. Made no commitment to support a ban on dismemberment abortion method.
 Jim Newberger	Supports the protection of unborn children by prohibiting abortion on demand. Supports passage of lifesaving pro-life laws.	Supports a ban on taxpayer funding of the abortion industry.	Supports the Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act.	Supports a national ban on dismemberment abortion method.

SPECIAL ELECTION – U.S. SENATE

 Karin Housley	Supports the protection of unborn children by prohibiting abortion on demand. Supports passage of lifesaving pro-life laws.	Supports a ban on taxpayer funding of the abortion industry.	Supports the Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act, which would protect unborn babies at 20 weeks, when they are able to feel pain.	Supports a national ban on dismemberment abortion method.
 Tina Smith	Supports abortion on demand.	Did not return the National Right to Life Candidate Questionnaire. Served as an executive at Minnesota's largest abortion provider.	Voted against the Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act.	Did not return the National Right to Life Candidate Questionnaire. Made no commitment to support a ban on dismemberment abortion method.

Where do the Candidates for Governor Stand on LIFE?

Tim Walz

Jeff Johnson

Supports abortion on demand. Compiled a 0% pro-life voting record in his 12 years in Congress	Abortion on Demand <hr/> Embryo-Destructive Research <hr/> Taxpayer Funding of Abortion	Supports the protection of unborn children by prohibiting abortion on demand. Supports passage of lifesaving pro-life laws.
Did not return the MCCL Candidate Questionnaire. Made no commitment to protect human life at its early stages.		Supports protections for human life at its early stages against destructive research and technologies.
Has voted against a ban on taxpayer funding of abortion.		Supports a ban on taxpayer funding of abortion in Minnesota.

Candidates for Minnesota Attorney General

Keith Ellison

Ellison compiled a 0% pro-life voting record while in the U.S. House of Representatives. He voted against the protection of babies born alive in botched abortions, and against protecting unborn children from abortion at the point they are able to feel pain.

Ellison said “he won’t defend new abortion restrictions in court if state lawmakers approve them.” (MPR News)

Wardlow compiled a very strong pro-life voting record while in the Minnesota House of Representatives. He voted in favor of a ban on taxpayer funded abortions, and for the protection of unborn children from abortion at the point they are able to feel pain.

Wardlow said, “I will defend the laws of the State of Minnesota, including our laws protecting the unborn.”

Doug Wardlow