CRITERIA FOR JAMES L MCKENZIE SCHOLARSHIP

- 1. Award is open to any Premier dancer registered with ScotDance Canada who is in good standing.
- 2. All candidates must perform a 6 step Tribute to J. L. McKenzie at a competition to be approved by ScotDance Canada. Candidates must demonstrate the dance correctly. Failure to do so will eliminate the candidate's eligibility for current year.
- 3. The award money should be used to further highland dance commitment (e.g.: attending workshops, travelling to competitions, highland dance instruction, new dance outfits, etc)
- 4. Candidates must demonstrate on their application how they have contributed to their community as a result of their dancing and other associated pursuits.
- 5. There should be quality in the candidate's application, i.e. Candidates must show that they have spent time thinking about their application, taking time to put their thoughts into words that clearly detail their experience and commitment, and are appropriate for their age.
- 6. They must show how highland dance has had an impact on their life.
- 7. There should be evidence that the candidates took time to research Mr McKenzie and to find out who he was.
- 8. Applications are to be sent by email to the Provincial Committee Member for your province. Each application is to be in a single PDF document and application must be complete, including letter from instructor.
- 9. The number of age groups will be determined on a yearly basis, therefore the scholarship amount will be based upon these groups.
- 10. Any dancer, who has previously won as per the official scholarship list, is not eligible. This list can be viewed at Scotdance.ca
- 11. Incomplete applications will not be eligible for consideration.
