

2018 PACE Fall Conference

October 30th, 2018

International House, Philadelphia

0830-0900	Registration, Breakfast, Networking
0900-0915	Welcome and Conference Intro	Shariq Raza, MD Assistant Professor of Surgery Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania
0915-1000	Keynote Presentation: Firearm and Other Violent Injuries in the US: Perspectives from Las Vegas and the American College of Surgeons	Deborah Kuhls Professor of Surgery, Chief of Surgical Critical Care UNLV School of Medicine	Objective: Analyze the role of each profession in the response to a mass casualty incident.
1000-1015	Break
1015-1100	Interview: Insights from Cross Training as a Trauma Surgeon and Law Enforcement Officer	Lewis J Kaplan, MD, FACS, FCCM, FCCP Professor of Surgery Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania Section Chief of Surgical Critical Care Corporal Michael J. Crescenz VA Medical Center  Interviews  Andrew Dennis, D.O., FACOS, FACS, DME Chair, Division of Pre Hospital and Emergency Trauma Services The Cook County Trauma & Burn Unit Associate Professor of Surgery, RUSH Medical College Medical Director Cook County Sheriff's Police Department, Emergency Services Bureau	Objective: Discuss the perspective of a trained trauma surgeon and law enforcement officer and how that can help inform the need for this type of training in various environments.
1100-1145	Presentation: Body Armor Research and Design	Marlene DeMaio, MD Professor of Clinical Orthopaedic Surgery Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania VA Medical Center, Philadelphia	Objective: Describe the advances in body armor research and design and how this technology provides enhanced protection from high caliber weapons.
1145-1230	Lunch
1230-1300	Presentation: Gang Violence in Philadelphia	Lt. James Muller Criminal Intelligence Unit Philadelphia Police Department	Objective: Discuss the current state of gang violence in Philadelphia, including techniques to recognize potentially violent situations in the clinical setting.
1300-1345	Presentation and Panel Discussion:	Presenters: Tanya Zakrison, MD	Objective: Analyze the current state of intimate partner

2018 PACE Fall Conference

October 30th, 2018

International House, Philadelphia

	Intimate Partner Violence	Ryder Trauma Center, University of Miami Carrie Sims, PhD, MD Associate Professor of Surgery Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania Moderator: Niels Martin, MD, FACS, FCCM Program Director, Traumatology & Surgical Critical Care Fellowship Assistant Professor of Surgery Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania	violence, including techniques to recognize and assist victims.
1345-1400	Break
1400-1445	Debate: Police Transport vs. EMS Transport of Trauma Victims to the Trauma Center: Pros and Cons	Case Presenter: Elinore Kaufman, MD, MSHP Fellow in Trauma and Surgical Critical Care Penn Medicine Moderator: Adam Shiroff, MD Associate Professor of Surgery Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania Pro: Dan Holena, MD Assistant Professor of Surgery and Epidemiology Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania Con: C. Crawford Mechem, MS, MD Professor of Emergency Medicine Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania	Objective: Compare and contrast the potential health outcomes of penetrating trauma victims transported to the trauma center via police vs. EMS.
1445-1600	Presentations and Panel Discussion: Trauma Victims Transported via Police Dropoff: A Tale of Three Cities	Moderator: Dan Holena, MD Assistant Professor of Surgery and Epidemiology Perelman School of Medicine at the University of Pennsylvania Presenters and Panelists: Zoe Maher, MD Assistant Professor of Surgery Temple University School of Medicine Jeffery Johnson, MD Trauma Medical Director Henry Ford Hospital Joseph Galante, MD Chief of Trauma and Acute Care Surgery Trauma Division Director Vice Chair of Education, Department of Surgery General Surgery Residency Program Director University of California, Davis Sara Jacoby, PhD, RN Assistant Professor	Objective: Analyze the process for police drop-off of penetrating trauma victims to the trauma center in the three cities across the country allowing it: Philadelphia, Detroit, and Sacramento.

2018 PACE Fall Conference

October 30th, 2018

International House, Philadelphia

		University of Pennsylvania, School of Nursing Jacob Weissenburger, RN Clinical Nurse Educator Penn Presbyterian Medical Center Emergency Department Andrew Dennis, D.O., FACOS, FACS, DME Chair, Division of Pre Hospital and Emergency Trauma Services The Cook County Trauma & Burn Unit Associate Professor of Surgery, RUSH Medical College Medical Director Cook County Sheriff's Police Department, Emergency Services Bureau
1600- 1615	Wrap up and Evals		