

1. If a student has no school items to return (they are not on the list), they will proceed straight to the cap and gown distribution.
2. If a student has items that belongs to the school (they are on the list), they will proceed to the red lane to drop off each item. Once all items are returned, they can proceed to the cap and gown distribution.
3. If a student is missing any item, they will be directed home to get and return on Thursday with the item or they can pay the fee associated with the item (all prices can be found on the fee sheet).
4. Graduation caps and gowns will not be distributed until school items are returned.
5. ONLY Spring Athletes need to proceed to the Athletic pick up.
6. ONLY students in Architecture, Construction, Culinary and Cosmo students who have been emailed need to proceed to the Major pick up.
7. ONLY students who need to buy a cap and gown or have issues that need to be addressed with Jostens need to proceed to the Jostens tent.