Jaycee Ford
New Adult Romance

Jaycee Ford grew up chasing street cars around the city of New Orleans. After doing a four year stint at Louisiana State University, she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in History and fled for the foothills of the Blue Ridge Mountains. New Orleans beckoned her home again where she put her love of the foothills into a series of romance novels. In between writing, she's found behind her desk at a top rated law firm ... or still chasing street cars.

Linzi Clarke
Paranormal YA, Adult

Lindsey Clarke is the writer of the Wattpad #1 Featured vampire hit novel Playing Dead and the #1 Featured short horror story The Fan. In real life, she is a jewellery designer, mother and beard lover and a proud cauliflower hater. Hailing from one of the 'shires in England, townie Lindsey is obsessed with writing about the dark, gritty backstreets of London and wishes dearly for everyone to have nightmares after reading her stories. Thriller?

Fantasy?

It started with a shift in atmosphere. The forest greeted Emma with starting force. At first she couldn't move her limbs, and then her vision was rendered useless, paralyzed to the forces within the forest. The voices came in a dream at first, commanding her against her will deeper into the forest. After months of fighting for control, it took only one moment to lose her human life forever. Now she is nothing more than an Essence, watching as her life unfolds without her.
