

AGENDA
“Carbon Pricing and Markets in the Asia-Pacific”
Tuesday, 3 September 2019 – Bangkok, Thailand

TIME	SESSION	SPEAKERS
9:00	OPENING CEREMONY
9:00	Opening Session: Welcome and introductory remarks from the organizers and host government	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Venkata Putti, World Bank • Dirk Forrister, International Emissions Trading Association (IETA) • Angela Churie Kallhauge, Carbon Pricing Leadership Coalition (CPLC)
9:15	Session 1: Carbon Pricing in Asia Pacific: Experiences and Opportunities for Further Engagement This session will take stock of carbon pricing policies across the Asia-Pacific and the progress that has been made in the past year based on the newly launched State and Trend of Carbon Pricing 2019 Report. This opening panel conversation will highlight the opportunities and challenges for the adoption of carbon pricing policies within the suite of climate policies in the Asia-Pacific context. Moderator: Venkata Putti, World Bank Session responsible: World Bank	Scene-setter: Venkata Putti, World Bank Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • VK Duggal, Asian Development Bank (ADB) • Wang Shu, ICF China • Nopparat Phrom-in, Thailand Greenhouse Gas Management Organization, Thailand • Syeda Hadika Jamshaid, Ministry of Climate Change, Government of Pakistan
10:45	COFFEE BREAK
11.00	Session 2: Operationalizing Climate Markets under Article 6 While rules, detailed guidance, and procedures for Article 6 remain under development, early action can provide practical experience to facilitate learning-by-doing. This session will review the state of play in the Article 6 discussion and will explore ongoing efforts aimed at operationalizing markets under the Paris Agreement. The discussion will reflect on modelling insights on the economic and environmental potential of Article 6 and will be informed by a scene setter presentation on the state of play in the negotiations. The panel will explore efforts by key MDBs aimed at developing a consistent infrastructure for an international market and at	Scene-setter: Perumal Arumugam, UNFCCC secretariat Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Venkata Putti, World Bank • VK Duggal, Asian Development Bank (ADB) • Kazuhisa Koakutsu, Director, Ministry of Environment – Japan

	promoting readiness in Asia-Pacific countries, as well as existing multilateral approaches and the role of the private sector. Moderator: Stefano De Clara, IETA Session responsible: IETA
12:00	LUNCH
14:00	Session 3: Carbon Pricing and the Use of Carbon Revenues Carbon revenues can be crucial in supporting cost-effective climate mitigation, industrial competitiveness and other economic and development objectives. How carbon revenues are used and how these uses are communicated are also critical for public and stakeholder acceptability of carbon pricing. This session will discuss the findings of a recently released report on the use of carbon revenues, providing practical guidance on using carbon revenues by helping policymakers understand the implications, opportunities, and challenges associated with different approaches to carbon revenue use. During this session, the main messages from the report will be presented in a TEDx format, followed by reactions by commentators to share lessons learned and insights on how to best use carbon revenues. Moderator: Celine Ramstein, World Bank Session responsible: World Bank	TEDx Scene-Setter: Celine Ramstein, World Bank Commentators: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Dirk Forrister, IETA • Mahlin Ahlberg, BMU • Wang Shu, ICF China
13:00	Session 4: Engaging the Private Sector on Carbon Pricing This session will focus on how companies across the region are engaging in efforts to put a price on carbon. Panelists will discuss issues pertinent to the private sector including competitiveness concerns, internal carbon pricing, and carbon pricing across the value and supply chain in key sectors. Moderator: Angela Churie Kallhauge, Carbon Pricing Leadership Coalition (CPLC) Session responsible: CPLC	Scene-Setter: Damandeep Singh, CDP Panelists <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Hendrik Rosenthal, Director, Group Sustainability, CLP Holdings Limited • Ryal Wun, Global Compact Singapore
15:00	COFFEE BREAK
15:15	Session 5: Carbon Pricing and Energy Transition Many countries around the world are embarking on transitions to sustainable energy systems. Carbon Pricing instruments can play a key role in the suite of policies necessary to help countries make this transition. This session will look into the requirements for a policy coherence for energy	TEDx Scene-Setter: Cyril Cassia, IEA Commentators: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Da Zhang, Tsinghua University • Nopparat Phrom-in, Thailand Greenhouse Gas Management Organization, Thailand

	transition. A TEDx-style scene setter presentation by the International Energy Agency will be followed by reactions by commentators, sharing insights from their vantage points. Moderator: Dirk Forrister, IETA Session responsible: IETA	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Toshi Nagata, METI Japan
16.30	Discussion of Key Messages and Next Steps	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Angela Churie Kallhauge, CPLC • Dirk Forrister, IETA
17:00	CLOSING

DRAFT