LOCAL ICON LOST TO VIOLENCE

BN Agent, V

Homicide #44 is the death of Devon “MDeez” Knights. Despite false informaton being spread after the death of MDeez, BN Agents uncovered the truth from people around the area of the incident and apparently what really happened was Mdeez Knight arrived to a carwash in the area of Fox Hill to demand rent from a guy who worked on the land. A fight ensued...he was stabbed in a main vain in that fight. He in all this heat attempted to rush himself to the hospital following that knife attack and while driving blackout and died.

The stabbing was the result of his death.

RODNEY MONCUR THE LEADER OF THE
WOMEN THEM! WENT LIVE ON FACEBOOK
TO LET BPL KNOW THEY DOING FOOL.

BN Agent, V

The great leader of the women them! Mr. Rodney Moncur went live yesterday on Facebook and asked BPL the million dollar question. Where is the 2 generators? The questioned was asked because BPL released a statement, stating that they lost 2 generators in the Blue Hill area. So Rodney then went on and asked “When was the last time? did you see these 2 generators BPL? because he can not understand how 2 BIG generators could be LOST?”

People of the 242 please note that these generators are about the size of almost a half of a foot ball field. So if anyone have any information on the where abouts of these 2 generators that BPL has lost. Please contact your nearest BN agents, so that we can help yinna get yall power back on at soonest! HELLO! HELLO! HELLO!

JOHN McAfee RISES AGAINST RBPF OFFICER AND CORRUPTION

BN Agent, V

John McAfee the inventor of McAfee Anti Virus company. Came back online to let the world know that there is a lot of corruption going on in islands of the Caribbean and also in the Bahamas. He went on to calling the name of a Police Officer in the Bahamas and claims the bank account of this police officer has been receiving large sums of money in the Bahamas.

WHOS TELLING THE TRUTH HERE ?
DID THE HIGH RANK POLICE REALLY
RECEIVE LARGE MONEY? WILL THE BAHAMAS EVER GET TO SEE THE HISTORY OF THIS BANK ACCOUNT?

PM HUBERT MINNIS
LEARNS A NEW DANCE
AND SHOWS IT IN THE HOA.

The photos show the Prime Minister of The Bahamas Dr. Hubert Minnis speaking in the House of Assembly and doing the wiggle on Wednesday 19th June 2019 as he wound up the debate on the Government's annual budget. He was making the false point that the PLP gave out 200 million dollars of untendered contracts and got only 3.5 million dollars in value. That value number was untrue. The Budget Debate is a ritual in The Bahamas and its political calendar that almost never changes anything, yet we do the same thing every year.

The American artist starts off by saying “I dont like The Bahamas” and she implied that she was stuck in the Bahamas by the airport twice with flight delays. She followed by saying the food that she had ate in the country was lacking seasoning and she dislike Freeport because it is to boring for her. This statement comes after she performed in Freeport and also performed in Nassau 2 months prior. This is just another clear indication that the promoters that carried her around didnt give her a 5 star treatment, to much grits and tuna, with fire engine and white rice for dinner! Forgive her 242, she just experienced the wrong side of our lovely islands.

FAKE VIDEO OF GIRL IN A GROUP ORGY GOES VIRAL TO TRY RUIN BAHAMIAN GIRL REPUTATION

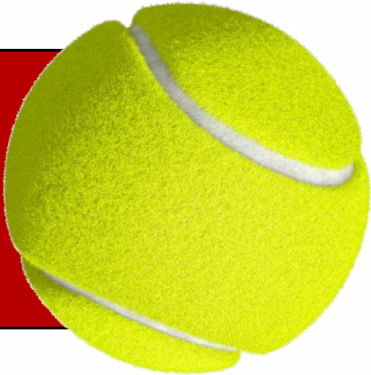

BN Agent X

A video of a girl being pulled trained on hits social media and whats app groups claiming to be a Bahamian girl that is a social lite, right after photos surfaced about a group naming "Escape Room" on Snap Chat. BN Agents digged deep into this matter which revealed the video of the orgy was fake and came from a porn website, which showed no bahamians.

The planned gimmick to destroy the character of one of the ladies in the group happened because the current GF of one of the men in the group believes that her man is cheating on her with a particular debbie pie. She felt this way for some time now but when she took her BF cell phone and found this group in his phone she thought it was the icing on the cake. But this was a cake she had no true stomach for, so instead of confornting the supposed sweet heart, she planted fake stories about the sweet heart getting pulled trained on and made it seem as if the escape room group was made for hooking up. BN agents digged deep into this matter and found out that the group was made for poker playing and the super jealous GF just doesnt have anyone to turn to for comfort, so trying to ruin peoples reputation was her only hope. Someone please give her a hug and keep her close, BN agents have been told she is still holding deep grudges towards her man. WATER PLEASE!

AUTOPSY SAYS BAHAMIANS ACCIDENTALLY FELL IN RIVER!??

Autopsy reports on the bodies of the 2 Bahamian men who were pulled from the Po river in Turin, Italy on June 4th and 5th confirm that Alrae Ramsey, 29, Foreign Service Officer and Blair John, 28, a psychology Ph.D. student accidentally fell to their deaths and drowned on May 30th. The results have ruled the duo's death as accidental and confirm that no foul play had been uncovered.

Additional details in the report indicate that both men had alcohol in their system before somehow falling into the river. However, the toxicology report conducted on both men indicates that alcohol levels would not have been so high as to make either of them drunk.

Investigators, in an effort to map out a timeline of events, suggest that it is possible that one of the men could have slipped into the water, or jumped, and the other would have allegedly drowned while attempting to help him.

Italian authorities said analysis is still in progress to confirm additional details about the drowning – in particular, looking for altered values in tissues which are markers of this type of death.

Now that investigators have completed the preliminary rounds of investigations, additional investigations will be launched into determining why both men ended up in the river and exactly which area they had fallen from.

Italian authorities will also comb Ramsey and John's electronic devices for additional clues.

Both bodies have been cleared by international authorities to be repatriated to The Bahamas, according to the foreign affairs ministry.

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs confirmed Wednesday that its foreign service officer is currently in Turin and is working assiduously with funeral homes in Turin and Nassau to have the bodies repatriated as quickly as possible.

Ayesha Curry, wife of NBA star Steph Curry, was at the BET Awards last night in Los Angeles. She wasn't at the event with her husband, and she noticeable was not wearing her wedding ring.

And people are whispering.

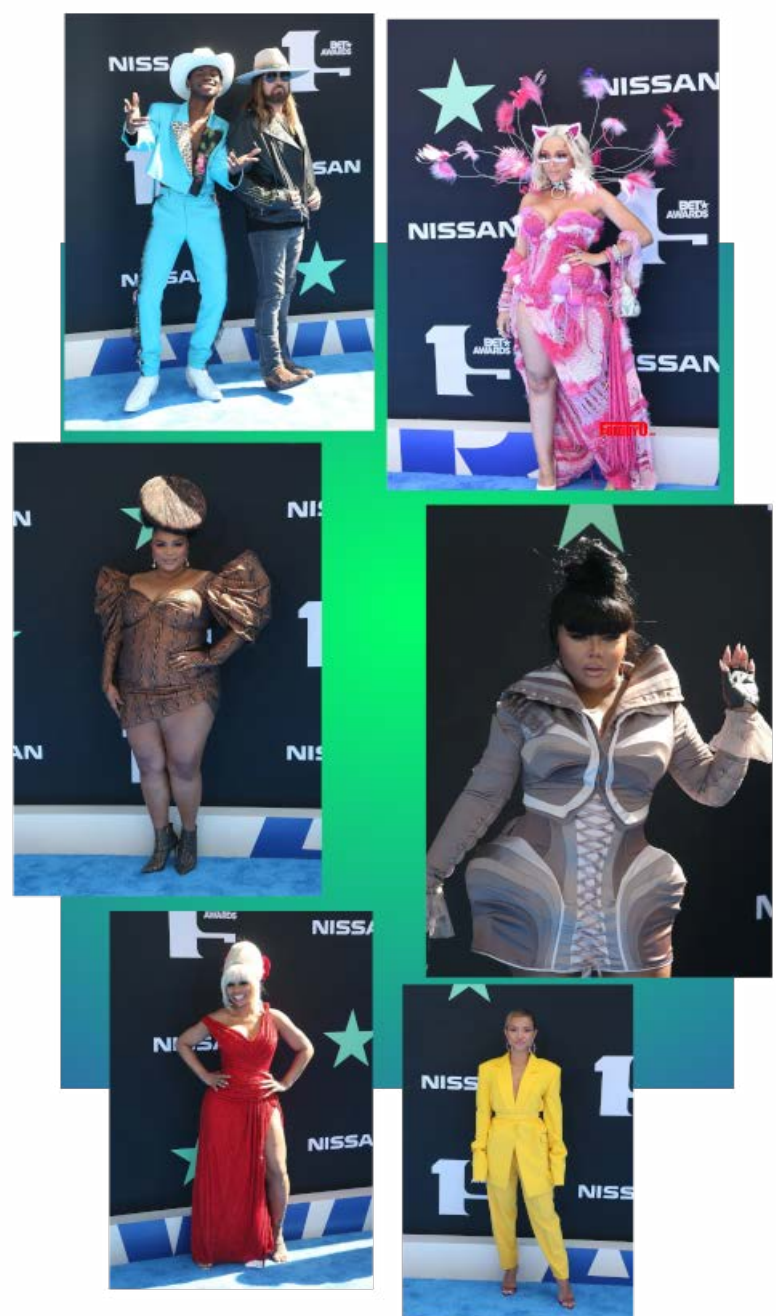

Ayesha made national news last month when she complained to Jada Pinkett Smith on her show Red Table Talk, that she wanted more male attention - from men other than her husband.

At the time, Ayesha's comments seemed innocent. But after last night . . . it has people wondering whether Ayesha was trying to tell us something.

Ayesha showed up to the event wearing a gorgeous short gown, which showed a fair amount of cleavage. You'll recall that Steph's wife also disclosed during Jada's show that she recently got new breast implants.

In case you're wondering, Steph is currently traveling by himself in Asia.

KING OF THE COURT

THE JOURNEY OF WILLIS MACKEY JR.

Willis Mackey Jr. is a Grand Bahama native who initially grew up playing baseball. It was his first love until he began playing basketball during his high school years at Christchurch School in Virginia. A season ending injury during his sophomore year took him out of the game until his senior year. His return to the court required rigorous training to develop his skills and he embraced each game with vigor, proving he could have a future career in basketball.

Willis' tertiary educational journey led him to the University of Northwestern Ohio (Home of the Racers), where he averaged 18 ppg and 10 rbp. Throughout college, he progressed his game, essentially going to the collegiate level on one year of high school basketball. With a lot of dedication to his post-game, he was able to become an All-Conference player by the end of his senior year and ultimately, a professional prospect in the European market.

Willis recently signed to the Duran International Sports Agency and is scheduled to begin his professional career in Europe this fall. He says, "My fundamental goal is to use the experience I will gain while playing overseas to advance the basketball league in The Bahamas. I plan on paying forward all of the knowledge that was given to me throughout my years in college, as well as on the professional level. I believe it is my duty to help the next Bahamian understand that anything is possible. All it takes is consistency and effort."

Willis was conferred a Bachelor's Degree in Forensic Accounting on June 9, 2019.
