

Glisson-LeBlanc Insurance Helps You Plan for Your Peace of Mind

The time to plan for tomorrow is NOW. Plan for golfing, sailing, traveling and spending time with family. But, can you protect your precious quality of life? Glisson-LeBlanc Insurance can help.

For 30 years, Renae' LeBlanc and Michele Glisson have been friends and business partners. Raising their families in Sarasota County, they know their community and all it offers. Their clients say they put people at ease when discussing life insurance, long term care planning and choosing care facilities for loved ones.

"Renae' LeBlanc went above and beyond, assessing our existing insurance and recommending adjustments that most benefit us," says Julie Graszl. "My husband Steve and I were comfortable with her and everything she suggested. Renae' helped us get into what we needed and met our budget. We highly recommend Renae' and Michele. They are reliable, trustworthy and knowledgeable."

Renae' LeBlanc says, "The long term care protection the Graszl's selected was an asset based long term care policy." Live, quit, die—someone will always benefit from this type of protection.

Michele Glisson adds, "The need for extended care is a life-changing event that can have an emotional, physical and financial impact on your family and loved ones. This type of protection provides a way to reallocate dollars for needed care."

Glisson-LeBlanc Insurance helps bring you and your family peace of mind so you can enjoy today and safeguard your tomorrows.
