Thursday October 3rd

9:30 am Informal Service

This Sunday - September 29th we celebrate Harvest with Services at 8:30 am and 9:30 am. As part of our thanksgiving for Harvest we will again be collecting items for a local Food Bank in a box (or boxes) in the Chapel. Apart from thanking God for all that he provides for us we should also remember that Wyggestons owns farms (whose tenants pay rent to the Charity) and so we should pray for our tenants. Non-perishable food only please.

Many thanks to the Wardens, Staff and Residents who worked very hard for the Fete last Saturday (21st September). As of today's date we have raised £1,618.05 for "Miracles To Believe In".

Poetry Hour

I am sorry to inform you that due to Doctor and Hospital appointments, I have to relinquish the rather pleasant task of getting our Group together to read and discuss both poetry and the thoughts and ideas that spring from our love of the poetic form. If anyone has both the time and the interest to take over, I would be most grateful but if not may I suggest we suspend the meetings until further notice. Sorry Again. José J - Flat 16 William House
