THANK YOU... the collection at last Sunday's Service raised £47.19 in aid of Age UK

This Sunday, beneath the Lenten Cross there will be a red ribbon, nails and a hammer as we recall Jesus telling people who were considering following him....
'If anyone wants to follow me he must first forget about himself, take up his cross and follow me. For whoever wants to save his life will lose it but whoever is willing to lose his life for my sake and the gospel will be saved'. Luke 9v23, 24.

Please note that I am back to work on Tuesday 18th.
My thanks to those who have taken Services in my absence.

As Helen Hayes is finishing her licensing to the West Leicester Mission Partnership she would like to say thank you and goodbye to all the people who have supported her ministry. There is a Party and Prayer at 4 pm on Sunday 7th April at St Paul's and St Augustine's. Wyggestons is supplying the special cake! All are welcome!

Tony
