

Anointing Jesus

Matthew 26:6-13

Now when Jesus was in Bethany, at the home of Simon the leper, a woman came to Him with an alabaster vial of very costly perfume, and she poured it on His head as He reclined at the table.

A faint, stylized illustration of Jesus and his disciples serves as the background for the entire slide. Jesus is depicted in the center, wearing a brown robe and a sash, with his hands raised in a gesture of blessing or teaching. He is surrounded by several disciples, some of whom are also wearing robes and have their hands raised. The illustration is rendered in a simple, cartoonish style with soft colors.

But the disciples
were indignant
when they saw this,
and said, "Why this waste? For this perfume might have been sold for a high price and the money given to the poor."

But Jesus, aware
of this, said to them, "Why do you bother the woman? For she has done a good
deed to Me."

A faint, stylized illustration in the background of the left page shows Jesus with long brown hair and a beard, wearing a brown robe. A woman with long dark hair is pouring perfume from a small jar onto his head. Other figures are visible in the background, some looking on. The text is written in a red, slightly irregular font.

"For you always have the poor with you; but you do not always have Me. For when she poured
this perfume on My body, she did it to prepare Me for
burial."

A faint, stylized illustration in the background of the right page shows Jesus with long brown hair and a beard, wearing a brown robe. A woman with long dark hair is pouring perfume from a small jar onto his head. Other figures are visible in the background, some looking on. The text is written in a red, slightly irregular font.

"Truly I say to you, wherever this gospel is preached in the whole world, what this woman has done will also be spoken of in memory of her."
