Old Testament Cups

- * Print out Old Testament Calling Cards
- * Tape 1 book of the Bible onto each of 39 cups. These are 16 oz cups that we are using, but any cups will work. You can also make labels to use for this. Another suggestion would be to write directly on the cup with a Sharpie marker.
- * Give each child a few of the cups
- * Have them spread the cups out in front of them on the table or floor
- * Using the Books of the Bible chart, call out the books of Old Testament in order.
- * The children hand you each cup as you call them out.
- * Start making a pyramid with the cups.
- * After all of the cups are stacked, have the children read all of Old Testament books in order.
- * Finally, the children can knock down the cups.

Object of the Game: The children are learning how to work together as a team and learning the books of the Bible.
